Wary Reynard

Either ole Brer Fox was altogether too crafty for the full cry, and recrossed his own track until even the most skilful dog in the county was dizzy, or else the woods so abounded with the Reynard breed that trail crossed trail to the undoing of the chase, for the Monday hunt failed to bring back the usual brush, in spite of repeated and baffling scents, heralded in frantic treble and howling bass by the pack. Among the riders that failing a hide, rejoiced in the gallop, were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Park, Mrs. Morrill, Mrs. E. P. Stevens and F. C. Stevens.
