

A SURPRISE PARTY

the Consolation from P. S. MacLaughlin two and one.

BRENNAN'S PROGRESS

S. C. Brennan, hailing from Worcester stayed with some hard matches and some close play to a victorious conclusion in the Governor's Division. The most stubbornly contested match in the whole affray took place in the final round between Brennan and D. E. Knowlton of Buffalo. It took twenty-one holes to decide the contest in Brennan's favor. Brennan had put W. T. Barr out by one hole in the first round, J. H. Turner of Forest Hills down three and one; and had taken S. O. Miller, the Englewood Entry, to task two up, in the semi-finals.

D. F. McMahan, the well known trap shot of the New York athletic club won the consolation from Geo. W. Statzell of Aronimink two up.

THE SECRETARY'S TROPHY.

Meanwhile Schroeder, the Montclair expert, sailed through the cream of the local challengers for final honors in the Secretary's Division. H. P. Hotchkiss lost to him on the home green in the first round; J. D. C. Rumsey was the second and W. H. Gregg of St. Louis, his third victim. W. W. Shedden put up a stiff fight in the final round and lost only by a single stroke.

H. P. Hotchkiss took his revenge upon the consolation and polished off Harry Waring in the last bracket one up.

E. N. Shaw of the Toronto Hunt Club, cinched the Treasurer's Trophy after a hard match with E. H. Lowell of Thorney Lea, and Fred Page, bearing the banner of the Sandhills came into another trophy in spectacular style. He and G. A. Magoon came into the finish simultaneous with a flood. Nothing daunted Page tried him a long putt from off the green from out of a puddle with his trusty niblic. Of course he lifted it in a perfect flight plunk into the soup in the cup. And there it remained.

C. H. Billings of Deal vindicated the shooter's eye by walking off with the Captain's trophy, while Fayen gathered in the consolation.

C. E. Beane of the Vesper C. C., won the Special Division from J. de S. Bosse of Quebec.
