A SURPRISE PARTY AT CLUB HOUSE

A delightful surprise greeted the members of the Jockey Club and their guests immediately afterwards in the aspect and appointments of the Jockey Club rooms. Mrs. Nat Hurd had invited them to tea, and incidentally had remodelled the rooms, furnishing them with the most fascinating and sportive tables and chairs, all done in colors. Col. Swigert had hung the walls with the famous horses which in times gone by won fame and fortune for the Swigert stud. The colony was well represented at the tea, which promises to be the initial success of the Winter's functions at the Jockey Club.

RUMSEY'S TROPHY

Beats Hagar For First Place
 After Tin Whistle Tie

Last week it was reported that in the Fourteen Hole Medal Play Handicap Golf Tournament of the Tin Whistle Club J. D. C. Rumsey and W. M. Hager tied for first place in the second division with a net score of 59 each. Well, the next day they sallied forth to come to a decision. And Rumsey set a new and a faster pace, cutting four points from the old tie score, equalling the best of the first division, and so landing the silverware by a margin of 6 over Hager.
