Mrs. Hurd's Medal

North and South Champion Wins the Qualifying Round of the St. Valentine Tournament for Women

Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd of Pittsburgh, North and South golf champion and former holder of the national and British titles, won the medal in the qualifying round of the St. Valentine tournament for women on Wednesday last. She covered the No. 1 course in 48, 45—93 and led the field by a margin of three strokes.

Miss Eleanor T. Chandler of Philadelphia and Mrs. F. Talford Keating of the Agawam Hunt Club gave Mrs. Hurd a hard fight. The Pittsburgh golfer played the first eight holes in even fives and led Miss Chandler and Mrs. Keating by two strokes at that time. Then Mrs. Hurd slipped up on the ninth losing a stroke to each of her two rivals and lost another stroke at the eleventh, where Mrs. Keating went down in par 3 and Miss Chandler sank a long putt for a brilliant 2. At that stage of the proceedings Mrs. Hurd and Mrs. Keating were tied at 57 for eleven holes and Miss Chandler stood at 56.

The Pittsburgh player picked up a stroke on the two other leaders at the twelfth, gained two more by a par 4 on the fourteenth and finished the last nine holes in 45 to 47 for Mrs. Keating and Miss Chandler, which gave her a lead of three strokes on each.

The medalist's card is given, as follows, with those of Mrs. Keating and Miss Chandler:

Mrs. Hurd, out:	6	6	5	5	4	5	4	5	8	48;00
