MRS. HURD REPEATS

Wins The St. Valentines Tournament
Mrs. John D. Chapman Runner-Up

Miss Eleanor T. Chandler of Philadelphia, had Won Her Match
Against Mrs. H. D. Saxton

South Champion, who won the qualifying round of the St. Valentine tournament for women in our last issue, carried off the final honors on Saturday by defeating Mrs. John D. Chapman of Greenwich by 6 up and 4 to play.

The first match round played on Tuesday, the 13th, was composed of a number of unequal contests in the First Eight, all of the favorites coming through without any particular difficulty. Miss Kate Bomann opposed Mrs. Hurd in this round and held her own until the start of the homeward trip, when Mrs. Hurd took several holes in succession, beginning with a fine 2 on the 11th and brought the match to an untimely end at the 14th. Mrs. Hurd came home in 42, the best 9 holes played during the tournament.

In the meantime, Miss Eleanor T. Chandler of Philadelphia, had won her match against Mrs. H. D. Saxton of Brooklyn by 8 and 6, and had gone in 49-43, 92 as compared with 50-42, 92 for the North and South champion. A comparison of cards of great interest at the time if of little interest in the light of later events, showed that Miss Chandler had a 1 hole advantage over Mrs. Hurd in the round, and gave promise of a great semi-final match between the two players on the next day.

The semi-finals, played on Friday, were however, disappointing from the gallery's point of view. Mrs. Hurd played a good round, finishing in 45-44, 89, but Miss Chandler was away off her game, took 98 to go around and lost by 6 down at the 14th.

The other semi-final match between Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. F. T. Keating of the Agawam Hunt, was also a one-sided affair, Mrs. Chapman taking the first four holes and holding her advantage to the end, finally winning by 5 and 4.

It was reserved for the second consolation division to produce the sensation of the day and the tournament. Mrs. G. A. Magoon of Oakmont, and Miss Winifred V. Cullen of Canoe Brook, failed to come to a decision at the 18th. Also at the 19th, 20th, and 21st, and having come that far they went right on and halved the 22nd and 23rd. Mrs. Magoon finally won what is possibly the longest match ever played at Pinehurst, at the 24th hole!

The Finals

Of course everybody, including Mrs. Chapman, knew that Mrs. Hurd would defeat Mrs. Chapman in the final contest. It is therefore all the more to the credit of the ultimate loser that she played the game of her life all through the first half, going out in 46

On Friday afternoon, February 14, 1919, the Second Annual Pinehurst Field Trial Club started its open stake with Wastica, owned and handled by Jay V. Hall, and Peggy Montrose, owned and handled by R. K. Armstrong, as the first brace. Wastica slowed up a good deal towards the end of the heat. She pointed in a swamp and found nothing, and did the same up on the hill later. She, however, did not hold either point long. She was fairly wide and fast, but did not have much class, nor, apparently, much endurance. Peggy went wide enough for this wooded country and seemed to be hunting all the time and was quite fast and had a good deal more class than Wastica. Neither dog, however, found birds.

The next brace was Stylish Palmetto, owned and handled by R. K. Armstrong, and Dolly Patch, owned and handled by C. Blow. Palmetto was a good going dog, but not as wide as Mr. Armstrong's other dogs. Had good speed and a nice way of going. It was raining pretty hard when these dogs were down, but Dolly got out wider than Palmetto and kept out in good shape, but wasn't as fast. Once or twice she messed around on a trail for some time. Neither of the dogs found birds.

The third brace was Dolly Peach Blossom, owned and handled by Mr. Hall, and John Brinkins Jack, owned by A. P. Pou and handled by Mr. Armstrong. Dolly is a nice going bitch, with good speed, but her range is pretty narrow and she seemed to be out of hand a good deal. She found no birds, and after Jack had found a covey which had been flushed she got no singles. Jack is a very clumsy dog, had plenty of speed and range; made a good find at the head of a branch and when the birds were flushed he snapped up two singles. At the end of the heat he seemed to be slowing up some, but outside of that he ran a perfect heat, considering the country he was handled over.

The fourth brace was Sunkist, owned by Jay Hall, handled by Armstrong
