ARMENIAN-SYRIAN RELIEF

The Armenian-Syrian Relief campaign opened throughout the country yesterday will continue throughout the week, ending on Friday, the 28th.

The North Carolina state quota is $200,000.

The Moore county quota is $17,000.

Pinehurst's quota is only $300 and, unless we all let George do all of it, The Outlook, should be able to report a heavy over-subscription of this small amount, in its next issue.

Cheques may be sent to the Township Chairman, Rev. T. A. Cheatham, Pinehurst, or to the Treasurer, Mr. F.

W. Von Canon, at the Bank of Pinehurst. Mrs. Leonard Tufts is the Chairman for the county.

Jackson County has already completed its quota. Mr. Ralph Runyan sends the Outlook the following letter on the subject:

Jackson county was the first in the state to go over the top in the Armenian-Syrian Relief Campaign. Mr. A. C. Reynolds, county chairman, was appointed by Dr. Joyner, and three days after his appointment he called at the state headquarters to tell Dr. Joyner that his county had not only raised its quota, but had gone far over the top.

Mr. Reynolds said he had no difficulty in securing the cash and that all he had to do was to show the people the telegram from Dr. Joyner appointing him chairman. In that telegram Dr. Joyner had stressed the needs of the suffering people of Armenia and Syria and that plea was all that was necessary to arouse the sympathy and open the hearts of the people of Jackson county. Chairman Reynolds said he did not think it necessary to wait for the drive, which is set for Feb. 21 to 28 but went right out after the money as soon as he was put in command in his county, and he turned the trick.

Dr. Joyner predicts that this relief fund will come equally as readily in other parts of the state as it was raised in Jackson county.

DANSE UNIQUE

At the Carolina on Valentine Eve.

The great ballroom at the Carolina was crowded to its limit on the Eve of St. Valentine's Day, when the carefully arranged plans of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Claire Bousted bore fruition in the most successful costume affair that has ever happened at Pinehurst, or, for all we know to the contrary, anywhere else.

A large number of handsome prizes were donated by Ex-Governor and Mrs. Brumbaugh, Col. and Mrs. Kolb Mrs. F. A. Seibert, Mrs. H. H. Duden, Mrs. Dickenson Bishop, Mrs. R. C. Shannon 2nd and Mrs. M. B. Johnson.

The prize winners included:

Mrs. Frank Butler (Annie Oakley) and Mr. Manning, wonderfully costumed as Squaw and Indian Chief and unanimously elected as the most popular and perfectly costumed couple.

John R. Bowker, dressed as a frail and aesthetic infant carried off the prize for the most original costume.

The prizes for the Lucky Number dance went to Miss Crocker, dressed as an Italian signorina, and Mr. Reynolds, as a soldier.

The prize for the most attractive woman's costume was won by Miss Ruby Keney, dressed as a dainty Chinese maiden.

Mr. Frank Pierson, dressed as a Mexican vacquero, took the corresponding prize in the mere men's section.

The many other prize winners included Miss Esther Tufts (Night), Miss Katherine Kolb (Gypsy), Miss Warren (a Poster), and the Misses Patterson.

The committee which recklessly accepted the responsibility for auditing the prize votes comprised Mr. Brumbaugh, Mrs. Samuel Hopkins and Mr. T. H. McGraw.

DOES NO. 3 IN 71

Willie Wilson Cuts Season's Mark
The figures are gradually climbing down on the No. 3 course.

Parker W. Whittemore went over the course in 38, 36—74, the other day clipping three strokes from the season's record. Then Willie Wilson, the York Harbor and Pinehurst professional, came along about an hour later in an amateur-pro match, and did the following to the poor old course:

Out 5 4 5 4 3 4 4 4 4—37
In 4 4 4 4 3 4 5 2 4—34—71

Big Match at Southern Pines-

One of the best professional four-ball matches played in the South this season was staged on the picturesque links of the Southern Pines Country Club on Tuesday. Emmet French, of York, was paired with George Fotheringham, against Cyril Walker, of Golden Valley, and George McLean, of Great Neck, and the match was all even at the 16th hole. The 17th 18th and 19th were halved and French won the victory for his team with a fine 3 at the second extra hole. Walker's 34-40, 74, was the best individual medal score, and included two great birdies in succession on the way out, a 3 on the 7th and a 2 on the 235 yard 8th hole.

Mrs. C. E. Amos, of Syracuse was awarded the prize for the best rifle score made by a woman during the week, at the Pinehurst Gun Club. The winning target was 134 out of a possible 150.
