The qualifying round of the Tin Whistles annual three ball tournament played on the Number One course on Monday, called forth just 57 varieties of rounds, of which Lou Hamilton's was in a class by itself. Fownes was second best, in the gross line, at 41-39-80.

Only twenty-seven were allowed to qualify and all of them finished in 77 net, or better, with T. H. Hogsett of Celveland, all alone at the top of the list, winner of the prize of the day with a net 70, composed of a gross 89 and a useful handicap.

THE FIRST ROUND

On Tuesday, the 27 qualifiers were grouped by lot in nine sets of three players each, for the first round of match play. L. D. Pierce turned in the best gross card of the day, 38-38, 76, and J. R. Bowker had the honor of winning his matches by the widest margin, taking 49 of the 108 points played for in each match, on the six point system.

The results of the 9 matches are given below, with the number of points gained by each contestant:

J. R. Bowker (9), Woodland, 49, beat B. V. Covert (17), Lockport, 38, and R. C. Shannon 2nd, (4), Brockport, 21.

H. W. Ormsbee (18), South Shore, 45, beat C. F. Lancaster (11), Brae Burn, 42, and Sanford H. Steele (18), Oakland, 21.

The Semi-Finals

The semi-finals, played on Wednesday were chiefly remarkable for the exceptionally narrow margins by which all of the three matches were won. L. D. Pierce, up against two men with far more useful handicaps than Pierce's measly 5 strokes, had a tough job on his hands but won out by a margin of 2 strokes by dint of going around well under 80.

Col. Ormsbee and W. L. Milliken cut the margin of safety even finer each winning his match by a single stroke.

H. W. Ormsbee (18), South Shore, 37, beat J. R. Bowker (9), Woodland, 36, and T. H. Clapp (5), Chevy Chase, 35.

L. D. Pierce (5), Ekwanok, 46, beat H. Hogsett (14), Cleveland, 44, and R. C. Steele (11), Youngstown, 18.

W. L. Milliken (13), Hyannisport, 38, beat R. H. Hunt (9), Worcester, 37, and C. B. Fownes (3), Oakmont, 33.

The Final

The final contest for the gran prix, played on Thursday, was not yet finished when The Outlook went to press, but if the obliging printer wants to help us out he will unlock a form, the right form, and squeeze in the fact that Leslie Deane Pierce, of Ekwanok, won the tournament, as follows:

L. D. Pierce (5), 48 points, beat H. W. Ormsbee (18), 36 points, and W. L. Milliken (13), 29 points.

Nibbs' Jumper Noses Out Porin at the Finish at Wednesday's Races

The two-mile steeplechase, the big event of last Wednesday's festival at the race track, was won by Melos, with Porin a much surprised and excellent second. Porin, with Diamond up, and Melos, ridden by Hail, went over the jumps neck and neck for over half the distance, Porin finally getting a length's lead over Melos, however, and keeping it right up to and including the last of the twelve hurdles. The two leaders dashed through the gap onto the open track with Porin still
