

THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK

VOL. XXII, NO. 18

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH, 29 1919

FIVE CENTS

MRS. RONALD H. BARLOW

Regains the North and South Championship Title and Ties with Mrs. J. V. Hurd for the Qualifying Round.

Miss Sara Fownes Defeats Mrs. Hurd in Sensational First Match Round and Gives Mrs. Barlow a Hard Fight for the Final Victory and the Championship Title. Mrs. Barlow Wins from Miss Rosenthal on the Home Green.

Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, who last held the North and South title in 1916, regained it on Wednesday by defeating Miss Sara Fownes with the last putt on the last hole of the last match of the most exciting North and South tournament that ever happened.

Mrs. J. V. Hurd, defeated by Miss Fownes in the first round, won the consolation trophy, of course, and incidentally turned in the best round made by a woman player this season, a 40-41, 81, on the championship course.

But, we are sorry to say, we haven't got down to the final matches yet and we will not go back to the beginning and start all over again.

Saturday's Qualifying Round.

A field of 62 took part in the qualifying round, on the Number two course, on Saturday, with Mrs. R. H. Barlow, Mrs. J. V. Hurd, the North and South champion, and Miss Elaine Rosenthal, the Western champion, the favorites for the medal, in the order named, and with Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, recently National champion, as an alternate, so to speak. Mrs. Barlow had just won the Silver Foils championship with a total of 170 for the 36 holes, on Number One. Mrs. Hurd had finished in 172, on that occasion, and had had an 82, on the championship course, in match play, on the day before the qualifying round. Miss Rosenthal had also had an 82, in that same match. Nobody seemed to have much of a line on Mrs. Vanderbeck's game, last week, but the fact that she had taken 10 strokes more than Mrs. Hurd or Miss Rosenthal in that match on Friday, seemed to count against her chances of leading the field on Saturday. Yet that is just what happened, as follows:

Mrs. Vanderbeck's card:

Out: 5, 5, 5, 4, 5, 3, 7, 4—42.

In: 4, 5, 5, 5, 5, 3, 6, 4, 6—43; 85.

Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. Hurd both started out badly and came in tied for second place, at 91, followed by Mrs. J. R. Price, at 92, and by Miss Sara Fownes, Mrs. John D. Chapman, Mrs. Myra Helmer Pritchard, a former Western champion, all three of whom tied at 94. Miss Rosenthal and Mrs. M. J. Scammell took 98 and would have had to play off a tie for last place in the championship Eight if Mrs. Vanderbeck had not withdrawn.

The elimination of Mrs. Vanderbeck left the award of the qualifying medal subject to the play-off of the tie between Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. Hurd, at 91, a play off which has not yet taken place as we go to press. There is one

Kate Bomann, both of whom should have known better, qualified over the 100 mark and dropped to the second eight in company with Mrs. J. W. Turnbull, who had broken 90 on the course only the day before the round. Mrs. Turnbull, in fact, finally wound up in the third eight, on the luck of the draw. Mrs. Donald Parson also went into the third eight by the same process.

Seven Eights qualified for match play, as follows:

Championship Eight.

Mrs. R. H. Barlow, Marion	48	43	91
Mrs. J. V. Hurd, Westmoreland	44	47	91
Mrs. J. R. Rice, Oakmont	47	45	92

THE OLD GUARD AT SOUTHERN PINES

In front: Donald Parson (left), L. D. Pierce (right).

Seated (left to right): M. B. Johnson, C. B. Hudson, C. B. Fownes, C. L. Becker, H. C. Fownes, J. G. Nicholson.

Standing (left to right): C. S. Waterhouse, Tom McGraw, Jr., J. M. Thompson, T. A. Kelly, J. R. Bowker, James Barber, Eberhard Faber, John E. Pushee.

thing certain, and that is the ultimate medallist will have earned her distinction, for that play-off ought to be one of the best contests staged here for a long time past. And to have the medal dependent on the play-off between the champions of yesterday and today is a far more satisfactory state of affairs, for all concerned, than to have had it go to either Mrs. Barlow or Mrs. Hurd direct, as a sort of second hand honor.

Miss Eleanor T. Chandler and Miss

Miss Sarah Fownes, Oakmont	45	49	94
Mrs. J. S. Pritchard, Midlothian	45	49	94
Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Greenwich	46	48	94
Miss Elaine V. Rosenthal, Ravisloe	49	49	98
Mrs. J. M. Scammell, Baltimore	48	50	98

Second Eight

Mrs. H. C. Smith, North

(Concluded on page two)

A GREAT DUEL

Melos Snatches the Steeplechase Honors from Porin in the Last Few Yards.

Nibbs also Takes the Seven Furlong with Molly O., Amazement, Lydia and King Charlie First under the Wire in Other Events.

It isn't every steeplechase that is won by fast work over the jumps, as was proven at the Jockey Club's race meeting on Wednesday. Nat Hurd's Porin, with Hulcoat up, had things all his own way so long as the supply of hurdles held out and got out on the open track with a good lead over Geo. Nibbs' Melos and the field, only to be overtaken and passed by Melos in the last few yards of the home stretch. Drawn, ridden by Lasses, had a bad fall at one of the hurdles and had to be shot. The diminutive jockey escaped without a scratch.

Nibbs carried off another first in the seven furlong flat, winning with Molly O. Hulcoat brought the winner under the wire in 1.31, closely followed by Diamond on George Roach and Yates on Disturber.

Thomas' King Charlie was driven by Swinnerton to a win in both of the mile heats in the trot and pace. Lambert Splane's Lydia, with Lasses up, took the 5 1-2 furlong flat race in 1.11 2-5.

The Guest Race, 4 1-2 furlongs, was won by Mr. Lillianhaw, riding our old friend Amazement, formerly owned by Charles Chosewood, of Atlanta, but purchased at auction last week by Mr. W. C. McHose, of New York.

The results:

Trot and Pace, Mile Heats.

King Charlie, Thomas, Swinnerton, 1-1
Whip Cord, Coddington, Thomas, 2-3
Direct Bell, Coddington, Yates, -- 3-2
Time: 2.22 4-5; 2.23 1-5.

5 1-2 Furlong Flat.

Lydia (112), Splane, Lasses, won.
Single (110), Coddington & Brown, Diamond, second.
Cliff Field (118), Hurd, Wells, third.
Time: 1.11 2-5.

Guest Race, 4 1-2 Furlongs.

Amazement, McHose, Mr. Lillianhaw, won.
Half Measure, Preston, Mr. Preston, second.

(Concluded on page seven)