APRIL PROGRAM

With the North and South Tournaments out of the way, the only large sized golf event to be still played, this season, is the Mid-April Tournament April 15-19. Here is a condensed list of the sporting events still to come off. We understand there is some idea of having a special golf tournament for girls, some time in April, but particulars had not reached us at press time.

April 5, and each Saturday thereafter, Prize Contest for Women.

April 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, First Annual North and South Tennis Tournament. Women's and men's singles, mixed doubles and men's doubles.

April 8, Hundred Target Handicap, at Gun Club.

April 9, Tin Whistles, Medal Play, 12 Selected Holes.

April 9, Second Annual Spring Steeplechase and Flat Races. Purses, $250 for each event. Full course.

April 15, Hundred Target Handicap.

April 16, Weekly Race Meeting

April 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, Eleventh Mid-April Tournament — Qualifying round and finals, eighteen holes Sterling Trophy for best qualifications score; President's Trophy to winner of first sixteen; Governors' Trophy to winner of second sixteen; sterling trophies to first and second division runners-up and consolation division winners.

REQUIREMENTS—In sending or making entries, please be careful to give full name, club membership and city or town address. Kindly make entries as far in advance as possible. Post and telegraph entries are both accepted.

April 21, 22, Second Annual North and South Amateur Trapshooting Tournament.

April 23, North and South Shooters' Race Meeting.

April 23, 24, 25, Sixteenth Annual North Carolina State Championship Trapshooting Tournament.

BVCOVERTWINSHAHHDICAPSHOOT

We can write that line with our eyes shut, having had more practice therein than in any other of our favorite stock phrases. Covert won on Tuesday with a score of 91-6, 96, with J. V. Hall second, at 83-12, 95 and J. H. Andrews, third, at 71-20, 91.

MRS. BEALL and MRS. CHAPMAN

Win the Silver Foils' Four Best Ball Tournament

A small but determined field took part in the Silver Foils' four ball best ball contest, on Tuesday, on the Number One course, the prizes going to Mrs. H. C. Beall and Mrs. J. D. Chapman, who led with 98-10, 88. Mrs. J. R. Price and Mrs. M. J. Scammell had an 88 but also had a plus 1 handicap, which gave them the second honors at 89 net. Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. Hurd played the best round of the day, as was to be expected, and came in with a gross 84. A plus handicap of 11 strokes had been provided for the occasion but even with that they finished with only four pairs ahead of them.

MRS. HURD, MEDALLIST

On Tuesday, Mrs. J. V. Hurd became the medallist of the North and South Championship Tournament for Women, which came to an end about a week earlier. Mrs. Hurd and Mrs. Barlow tied for the qualifying medal, at 91, and the first attempt to determine its award ended in a second tie. Mrs. Barlow led by 4 strokes at the fifteenth, but drove into the pond, and her opponent seized upon the opportunity to regain three of the missing strokes at this juncture. The fourth was gained on the eighteenth and the thing had to be played all over again.

On the second play-off, on Tuesday, the two players arrived all even at the seventeenth and Mrs. Hurd had the better of the argument, for the eighteenth, to the extent of one stroke that gave her the medal.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED to a Recital to be held at the Carolina on Friday evening, April 11, under the auspices of American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief. Miss Macgill, of Philadelphia, will give an unusual program of serious and humorous readings and pianologues, and brief descriptions of conditions in the Near East.

Send THE OUTLOOK to your friends. It tells the story of the week and saves letter writing. Ask for mailing envelopes.

Learn to Shoot

Take a few hours "off". Go out to the gun club and try the self played game for self made men. A real sport—

Trapshooting

The lure of the flying clays—their challenge to your gunskill and the game's genuine spirit of friendly competition, combine to lift the load off your mind and send you back to the battle of business with clearer brain and greater "pep".
