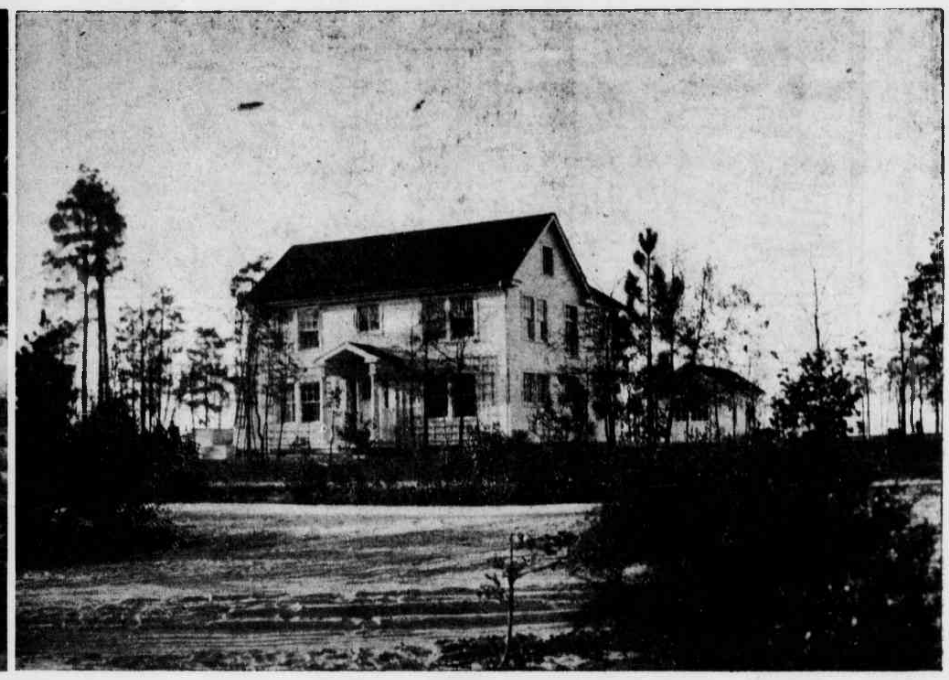
The Week in Pinehurst

WINTER RESIDENCE OF MR. H. H. JOHNSON, OF CLEVELAND, O.



COTTAGE OF MR. AND MRS. J. H. ANDREWS, OF AKRON, O.

The countryside made its way Dec. 14, to the plantation home of Mrs. Stephen W. Dana, who was hostess at tea. Guests were invited to meet Miss Margaret Bloxham, whose engagement to Trumbull Dana has been announced. Receiving with the hostess were Mrs. Eric Parson, Miss Bloxham and Trumbull Dana. Mrs. J. R. Page and Miss Alice Page motored over from Aberdeen and Mrs. George Maurice, Miss Ella Maurice and Mr. Stewart Maurice were guests from Eagle Springs. From Pine Bluff came Miss Annie Popham, Mrs. J. Cadwallader, Mrs. E. H. Roberts, Mrs. F. W. Best and Mr. B. C. Tharratt, while the cottage colony of Southern Pines was represented by Mrs. R. E. Wiley, Miss Sarah Wiley, Mrs. W. C. Mudgett and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bloxham. Guests from Pinehurst included Mrs. T. T. Watson, Miss Judith Jenks, Miss Dorothy Brown, Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Marr, Mrs. J. E. Boylan, Mrs. J. D. C. Rumsey, Mr. Charles P. Mason and Mr. J. V. Healy.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Jenks and family, of Harbor Beach, Mich., have opened up their cottage facing the village green.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Statzell are now quartered in their new home down near the golf links.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. F. Wanner, of Hempstead, L. I., are occupying the Little Brick House. Mrs. Wanner brings to the Kennel Club valuable experience in handling dogs and dog shows.

The Pinehurst School for Boys celebrated the close of the Fall Term by a dance on the evening of Dec. 19, attended by pupils and friends. Coming at the close of term examinations and on the eve of two weeks of vacation, it served as a pleasant relaxation for the members of the staff, as well as for the boys, and formed a fitting introduction to the gayeties of the Christmas season. The schoolroom was decorated for the occasion with holly and mistletoe and its warmth and cheer furnished a pleasant contrast to the inclement weather which prevailed that evening. Punch graced the side-table and at 10:30 refreshments consisting of ice-cream and cake were served to the boys and their guests. Among the guests were Mrs. S. Schley, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Joseph Gregory, Mrs. Goodwin and daughter, Mrs. J. G. Splane, Miss Elizabeth and Helen Luce, Miss Morrison, Miss Jeanette Johnson and sister, Miss Emery, Miss Cheatham, Miss Thomas, Miss O'Brien, and Mr. Irving Swoope.

Miss Mabelle Bliss was hostess at a farewell party for Mr. Frank Whitcomb at the Country Club last Friday afternoon. Tea and dancing was enjoyed by Miss Cora Danforth, Miss Minnie Cline, Miss Mona Sanborn, Miss Mabelle Bliss, Lieut. Jack Mitchell, Mr. Frank Whitcomb and Mr. Charles P. Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison B. Huntoon, of Providence, R. I., are welcome additions to the cottage colony. With Mrs. Huntoon's mother, Mrs. R. B. Huntoon, they will spend the winter at The Albemarle.

Passengers taken up by Lieutenant Mitchell this week in his airplane are Mrs. E. P. Spencer, Mrs. A. S. Gilman, Cleveland, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Picquet. Lieut. Mitchell is one of the best flyers in the Royal Air Force of Canada and has never met with an accident while carrying passengers. Those who have had a birds-eye view of Pinehurst declare that the beauty of the place is not fully appreciated until seen from above.

Mr. Allan Lard, the well known golfer, is at the Carolina.

Among those motoring over to Camp Bragg's Horse Show were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Statzell, Mr. Everett Rich and party, including his mother and Mr. Earnest Rich, of Lawrenceville, Mass. The officers at Camp Bragg gave tea in the officer's mess and did all they could to make it pleasant for their visitors from Pinehurst. They have promised to bring their horses over to The Pinehurst Horse Show.

There was crush of dancers at the Carolina Christmas Night Dance. Among those noted were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Morse, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Abner M Seely, Newark, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. George S. Silzer and son of New Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wolvin, of Monteal, Can., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLauchlin, Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fayen, Montclair, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Marshall, Newtonville, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Johnson, Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Swoope, Pinehurst, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Boyd, St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. Warren Dean, Minneapolis, Minn., Mr. Nelson Peters, Mr. J. L. Langdorf, Gen. C. C. Williams, Washington, D. C., and Col. R. A. Jones, Washington. D. C.

Clinton R. Black, Jr., known everywhere as "Cupid," who was Captain of the Yale football team in 1916, is at The Carolina for a few days of golf.

A notable group of Senators blew in from Washington last week and having doffed their togas in favor of kickers they argue on the links in terms of brassie and cleek. The party of favorite sons and presidential dark horses include Speaker F. H. Gillett, Mass., Senator Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, Senator Frank B. Kellogg, of Minn., Senator Warren C. Harding, of Ohio, Congressman Alvin T. Fuller, of Mass., Congressman Richard Whaley, South Carolina and Congressman R. B. Sandford, Albany, N. Y.

In the weekly Ladies' Rifle Shooting Contest Mrs. C. S. Hungerford, of Waterbury, Conn. and Mrs. W. B. Merrill, of Newton Centre, tied at 138 points each. The shoot-off won by Mrs. Hungerford at 141.

John Bassett Moore, member of the Permanent Tribunal at The Hague and formerly of the Department of State, is stopping at The Carolina.

Mr. W. M. Sanford, of Glen Ridge, N. J., and a party of his guests drove a four horse tallyho to the races on Christmas Day and the clear notes of the horn added a genuine touch of Christmas to the festivities of the day.

Two men further up the line explain to each other the possibilities lying in a raisin, a piece of yeast cake and a bottle of cider. With these ingredients something almost worth while can be made.—HILL, in N. Y. Tribune.
