A soldier in the English Army wrote home: "They put me in barracks; they took away my clothes and put me in khaki; they took away my name and made me "No. 575"; they took me to church, where I'd never been before, and they made me listen to a sermon for forty minutes. Then the parson said:

"No. 575—"Art thou weary, art thou languid?"

And I got seven days in the guard-house because I answered that I certainly was."
