MRS. J. V. HURD REPEATS IN WOMEN'S ST. VALENTINE'S

Wins Qualifying Round in Easy Fashion

Mrs. J. V. Hurd of Oakmont, former National and British champion and runner-up to Miss Elexa Sterling in the last national event, repeated her victory of last year and won the qualifying round of the Sixteenth Annual St. Valentine's Tournament for Women in rather handy fashion with the remarkably fine round of 83. Play started on Tuesday of this week and will end with the finals on Friday.

Mrs. Hurd's round was by far the best that has been played here by a woman golfer this season. Her nearest opponent was Mrs. Joseph Bydolek with a score of 51-44-95, who was followed by Mrs. George M. Howard with 51-47-98. Mrs. John D. Chapman, who has been playing in such excellent form this season, and who was expected to give Mrs. Hurd a close race for the medal, played her worst round of the season and finished fourth at 100. Both Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Hurd went over the Number 1 course on Monday in 88, but the best Mrs. Chapman could do in the qualifying round was 50-50. On the other hand, Mrs. Hurd has not been at her best until recently, but seems to improve daily, and if she keeps up her good form she is sure to be a formidable contender for the National title this summer. Her last nine holes in the qualifying round were played in 40, including a 3 on the eighteenth. Her card follows:

Out—	455 465 455—43
In—	436 446 463—40—83

Thirty-eight players qualified in divisions of eight. Mrs. C. S. Waterhouse returned the low score in the second division; Miss Caroline Bogart in the third, and Mrs. Victor Frey in the fourth.

RICHLY BRED RACERS IN HYDE'S BARN

Mr. Fred E. Hyde, who is wintering a string of richly-bred race horses at Pinehurst, has in his barn some of the best blood in the country, including a number of coming two-year-olds from which he expects great things on the Grand Circuit tracks this summer.

Among the youngsters in his barn is a handsome big colt, Dudley Watts, by Lord Dewey-Catherine Watts. Lord Dewey was by Admiral Dewey and has the illustrious Nancy Hanks for his dam. Other promising two-year-olds are the Belwin-Octavia Bingham filly, Octave, and Claret by Belwin-Henrietta C. The colt and two fillies as yearlings cost Mr. Hyde, $6,300.00.

In the older division of the string is Joseph Guy, a 7-year-old son of Guy Axworthy-Nancy Gladys, who has a record of 2:06 1-4 and has been privately timed in 2:04. Oscar Watts, a 7-year-old trotter, is another fast one, and Mary O'Conner, a pacer, 2:03 1-4, has stepped a half mile in 59 seconds.

Mr. Hyde is tightening them up for the races now, and if he decides to start any of them before the close of the present season Pinehurst race-goers will be treated to some rare racing.

CHARLES HOFFNER GETS 69

In All-Professional Match

In an all-professional four-ball best-ball foursome played on the Championship course on Tuesday afternoon, Chas. Hoffner of Philadelphia, and Charles Mothersele, Pinehurst, defeated George Fotheringham, Richmond County, and George McLean, Great Neck, 2 and 1. Hoffner and Mothersele had a best ball of 34-31—65 against 33-35—68 for McLean and Fotheringham. Hoffner's remarkable round of 69 was the best individual score.

A number of professionals were in Pinehurst Sunday and engaged in exhibition matches. Emmet French and Charles Hoffner defeated George McLean and George Fotheringham, 1 up. Pat Doyle and Charles Mothersele took on Jack Forrester and Carl Anderson, but were not equal to the task and were defeated by the narrow margin of 1 hole. Doyle made a desperate effort to square the match at the home green, when he played a brilliant iron shot from the rough onto the green, but was unable to negotiate the 3 and a halved hole lost the match.

Donald Ross has decided to go to England and Scotland this summer. He will leave early enough to take in the open championship at St. Andrews, then go on to Scotland for a six weeks' sojourn.
