

MISS WARING'S COLORS IN FRONT

Takes Double and Second

The green and white silks of Miss Helen Waring were conspicuously to the fore at this week's meeting of the Jockey Club, when she sent two winners and a second to the post out of three horses entered. This included wins in the five furlong flat race with Joe Milner and the steeplechase purse event, the feature of the day which was won in handy style by her much improved Ray-O'-Light over G. Nibbs' sturdy old timber-topper, Melos, and Henry B. Swoope's Kate Glen.

A shift in the weights from those allotted the last time this trio met figured considerably in the running of the steeplechase. At the former meeting Ray-O'-Light conceded weight to the other starters and finished third after setting a fast early pace, but today he was in receipt of several pounds from his former victor, and after making his own pace all the way through came on to an easy victory, with Melos second and the Swoope mare third. All three of the horses were closely bunched for the first turn of the field, but the Waring representative soon drew out to a commanding lead which he maintained to the finish and had very little difficulty in gaining the verdict. Melos followed along within striking distance, but failed to respond when called on at the head of the stretch, and could never improve his position. Kate Glenn dropped back to third place shortly after the start and was never a serious contender.

Showers during the forenoon changed the conditions of the track, and as a consequence one of the best cards of the present season was marred by scratches. In the five furlong event only three horses faced the starter, and in the seven furlong affair only two of the original six accepted the issue. Joe Milner, a notorious mud-runner, entered by Miss Waring and ridden by Wright, took the measure of Troben, Machere, and Wasseon in the former event, and Mary G. showed her heels to High Olympus in the latter. Mary G. has been knocking at the door in first-class company for some time, and it seemed to be a soft track she needed to gain a victory. She took the lead with the fall of the flag which she increased with every stride and won with plenty to spare.

Three of the trotters took a turn-about in winning a heat in the Class A. trot, Whipcord, Zaquilla and Mike Kelly each taking a heat. The race finally resulted in Whipcord and Zaquilla splitting first and second money and Mike Kelly taking the short end of the purse. Tom H. and Bingen Gentry, two rival pacers owned and driven by Grey and Jones respectively, engaged in a match race of two half-mile heats, but the winner is yet to be decided as each of the horses took a heat today and will try it over again at the meeting next Wednesday.

Golf instructors at this resort are seldom called upon to preach the virtues of concentration. Nearly everybody concentrates on golf here—physically, verbally, mentally and in between courses, so to speak. Perhaps the most striking illustration of concentration on the matter in hand was afforded in the lobby of the Holly Inn a few evenings ago when a certain Connecticut golfer was demonstrating a new swing that had greatly improved his game. He used a water glass to represent the handle of an imaginary club and his only trouble was that he overlooked the fact that the glass was full until he had reached the top of his perfect swing and had gently poured most of its icy contents down the back of his neck.

NORWOOD JOHNSON HIGH GUN IN WEEKLY EVENT

The handicap is limited to twenty birds. A sterling trophy will be given for the four best scores made each month during the months of January, February and March, in the weekly handicap tournaments from 16 yards at 400 targets. Annie Oakley will instruct ladies in the art of shooting, free of charge. Weekly prizes will be given to the ladies making the highest score at the rifle range.

The Seventh Green, Hollywood Golf Club, Deal, N. J.

"One of the best golf courses in the Metropolitan district is that of Hollywood" says The Sun and New York Herald of August 8, 1920. And it adds:—"Here is a course the soil and turf of which are as close to perfection as there is any need for these to come."
Also note the following from the New York Globe of September 22, 1920:—"Both Vardon and Ray have agreed that Hollywood is the best course that they have ever seen in America."
