DWIGHT N. CLARK CELEBRATES 92nd BIRTHDAY

On March 2, Mr. Dwight N. Clark of Woodbridge, Conn., who is spending his twenty-first winter at Pinehurst, celebrated his 92nd birthday. Manager and Mrs. Fitzgerald of the Holly Inn presented him with a handsome birthday cake, and flowers and cards were received from his host of friends throughout the country. Mr. J. R. Such furnished quail for the party.

Mr. Clark commenced playing golf here when he was seventy-two years of age and has kept up the game six months each year ever since, playing four months as was awarded the prize for the best male rider in girl's attire. Mr. Thomas was dressed as a ballet dancer. Miss Clemson and Miss Dorothy Barber won the doughnut event and Miss Barber also won the prize in the chariot race. Miss Barber's costume was a Yama Yama girl. Little Miss Helen Butterfield was adjudged the best juvenile handler of trick ponies and won first prize in that event. Mr. E. L. Bradford and Mrs. Evelyn P. Spencer were victors in the cigarette race, and Mr. David White was best at tilting at rings while astride his gallant mule. Other prize winners were Miss Dorothy Richards, Miss Ruth Grady, Miss Frances Thomas, Miss Frances

PAYNE TO VISIT PINEHURST

President Wilson's Cabinet, with possibly one exception, will retire immediately to private life. John Barton Payne, ex-Secretary of the Interior, will turn in his resignation as Director of Railroads, but in the event that it is not accepted will continue until arrangements have been made for handling of that work.

Mr. Payne will leave Washington for Pinehurst, N. C., March 10, and for the next two weeks will play golf and rest.—Boston Globe.

THE GYMKHANA

The first full-fledged Gymkhana of the season was held at the race track on Saturday afternoon last, and from the enthusiasm manifest among the large crowd of spectators the horsemen and horsewomen of Pinehurst would do well to stage these affairs oftener.

Thirty-one contestants, all dressed in fantasies, took part in the various events which were decidedly entertaining from start to finish, and all the costumes were striking and clever.

The prize for the best woman rider in male costume went to Miss Elizabeth Clemson, whose representation of an equestrian Pierrot won for her a verdict by acclamation; and Mr. John C. Thom-
