

P. W. WHITTEMORE

Tin Whistles' Champion

The annual Championship tournament of the Tin Whistles, 54 holes medal play on three different courses, opened on Monday last and continued at 18 holes each day through Wednesday. Parker W. Whittemore led the field by a margin of thirteen strokes and annexed the Championship trophy with rounds of 74-75-80—229 for the three days' play. Donald Parson was second, at 81-86-75—242, followed by C. B. Fownes, 84-82-84—250.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

Best gross for 54 holes, P. W. Whittemore, 229.

Second gross for 54 holes, Donald Parson, 242.

Best net for 54 holes, Henry Hornblower, (28), 219.

Second best net for 54 holes, S. O. Miller, (12), 222.

Best gross round, excluding major winners, N. W. Peters, 78.

Best net round, excluding major winners, G. A. Magoon, (23), 70.

Whittemore gained a lead of seven strokes in the first day's round which he increased to seventeen strokes on the second day, then went around leisurely in 80 on the last day and finished thirteen strokes to the good. Only one stroke separated the second pair, Parson and Fownes, at the end of the second day, but Parson's 75 on the last day against Fownes' 84 put him eight strokes ahead and won him second place.
