

AT Hotel McAlpin one may make delicious food the center of attraction, with music and dancing a secondary consideration—-or one may revel in music and dancing with a delightful meal but a natural accompaniment. For, at the McAlpin, all three are beyond criticism.

THE ANNEX

NEW YORK

THE art of maintaining a large, modern hotel with its attendant advantages, and yet make its guests feel the intimacy of a real dwelling place, is perfected in the present management of The Annex.

*Under the Direction of L. M. Boomer,
Frank E. Jago, Resident Manager*

32nd to 33rd Sts. and Broadway
