

ALL SET FOR THE BANKERS

With the arrival of the special trains on Sunday next bringing the Executive Council of American Bankers from the East and West, the first week in May at Pinehurst will resemble mid-season and the Carolina will be filled to capacity, as there will be close to 400 people in the Bankers' party.

The financiers are coming to Pinehurst for their annual convention and an outing of golf. They come from every state in the United States and represent one of the finest bodies of men that could be drawn together. Mr. Guy E. Bowerman, Executive Manager of the Association, has arranged the week's program so as to get in all the work possible and yet leave a big margin for play and outing pleasures. The mornings will be taken up largely with committee meetings and the business end of the affair and the afternoons will be given over entirely to recreation. In addition to the Association's golf tournament there will be varied golfing events for all. Special bridge parties and putting contests have been arranged for the ladies; a shooting exhibition by Annie Oakley, Fiddlers' convention, horse-racing, Colored cake-walk, canoe trips on the Lumbee river, dancing every evening and the Grand Ball on Wednesday evening, and side trips through the Sandhill section, all will tend to round out a happy week for the distinguished visitors.

The officers of the Association are:

President, John S. Drum, President Mercantile Trust Co., San Francisco, Calif.

First Vice-President, Thomas B. McAdams, Vice-President Merchants National Bank, Richmond, Va.

Second Vice-President, John H. Puelicher, President Marshall and Ilsley Bank, Milwaukee, Wis.

Executive Manager, Guy E. Bowerman, 5 Nassau Street, New York.

Treasurer, Harry M. Rubey, President Rubey National Bank, Golden, Colo.

General Counsel, Thomas B. Paton, 5 Nassau Street, New York.

Secretary and Assistant Treasurer, William G. Fitzwilson, 5 Nassau St., New York.

Manager Protective Department, L. W. Gammon, 5 Nassau Street, New York.

Editor of the Journal, James E. Clark, 5 Nassau Street, New York.

Judge Way Places Contract for Home at Knollwood

Judge W. A. Way of Pittsburg, who recently bought a building site on the Knollwood property, has given Richard Tufts a contract for the erection of a $20,000 cottage on the site, and the house will be finished and ready for occupancy by next fall. The building will be modern throughout and will be one of the finest country homes in Moore County. The architects have completed plans for the house of Mr. James Barber on the adjoining lot and work will begin on his house at once. A dozen or more lots have been sold at Knollwood during the past few weeks and it is likely that work on other homes at that place will begin very soon. The new Crest Road, which runs at right angles with Midlands Road, is very nearly completed.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Spring Purchase 10-Acre Tract at Pinehurst

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Spring of Boston, who have occupied their winter home at Pinehurst, the Log Cabin, for a number of years, have purchased a tract of land out some distance beyond the dairy, upon which they will erect another Cabin to be used as an auxiliary with their home in the village proper. The tract contains some ten acres of ground and is situated on a beautiful knoll in the pines, and those who have seen the Spring's cabin in Pinehurst will appreciate what an attractive place their new home will be.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barr to Build During Summer

Another new cottage to be erected at Pinehurst this summer is that of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barr of Larchmont Manor, N. Y., who recently purchased the lot in the triangle on the Carolina walk opposite the home of Mr. George Magoon. Mr. and Mrs. Barr have decided to remain in Pinehurst this summer and will occupy the Afterglow while their new cottage is in course of erection.
