PRINCELY ENTERTAINMENT has been the synonym for everything desirable from time out of mind. The monarchs of old were royally attended, but they experienced not half the luxury and comfort that Pinehurst guests accept as a matter of course.

The entire globe contributes its best to the generously spread tables. Nothing needful for physical ease is neglected. Not untutored slaves, but thinking, well-trained free men and women give intelligent and willing care to the pleasure of those they serve. And where will more varied and delightful entertainment be found, indoors or out?

The orderly comfort and silent perfection of service for which Pinehurst hotels are famous are the cumulative result of thought given by everyone connected with the Pinehurst organization for the pleasure and comfort of each guest as an individual. So PINEHURST has become the synonym for a superlative luxury and pleasure of which the originator of PRINCELY ENTERTAINMENT never dreamed.
