Out the Midland Road

In various quarters of the Village,
The Builder Continues his activity.

Pinehurst is not only the center of the world of winter sport, here is also the home-creating area that entices more visitors each year to provide permanent shelter for themselves under their own roof.

A delightful village, and with some one else to look out for all the responsibilities and bother of village management.

Nothing like Pinehurst anywhere else in the world.

Mr. Emery will be glad to talk about locations with you.
