THEATRE

THE SHOPWORN ANGEL—Starring Nancy Carroll and Gary Cooper in a Paramount romance which deals with a rube soldier and the most beautiful girl on Broadway. The New York Herald Tribune: "The Shopworn Angel is thoroughly charming and engaging. So delightful in story, action, direction and titling that it is the most likable and genuinely heart-warming photoplay to arrive here in many weeks. Nancy Carroll has never been as good as she is in the role of the chorus girl. Gary Cooper is engaging, ingenuous. Paul Lukas, as ever, exceptionally good." Friday, January 11th.

THE CASE OF LENA SMITH—Esther Ralston in her first dramatic offering. The picture comes to the Carolina well recommended and should be one of the highlights of the week. Paramount stars supporting this charming blonde are James Hall and Gustave von Syfertitz. Monday, January 14th.

ADVENTURES OF CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS—The latest marionette offering of the famous Tony Sarg. The trials and tribulations of the great
