THEATRE

PREP AND PEP—The feature holiday offering which ran for two weeks at Roxie's Theatre. A story of the youth of today with its problems and pleasures, starring Nancy Drexel and David Rollins, star of The Air Circus. Fox produces this wholesome comedy of life in a Prep School. Friday, January 18th.

TRUE HEAVEN—A Fox special starring Lois Moran and George O'Brien in a drama which has its source and inspiration in the world war. There is no actual fighting and there are no actual battle scenes, but there is plenty of punch in the plot.

A girl who is a spy for Germany meets a young British officer behind his own lines and gets from him some valuable information. She then goes back to her own lines. Soon the officer, clad in a German uniform, is dispatched on a similar mission to the enemy country. The girl captures him, and is torn between her desire to save him and the feeling that it is her duty to surrender him to be shot as a spy. Her decision and the resulting action form a smashing climax. See it at the Carolina Theatre on Monday, January 21st. Matinee at 3:00 and evening performance at 8:15.
