THEATRE

MARQUIS PREFERRED—Pinehurst's favorite sophisticated star, Adolphe Menjou, will be seen in his latest and—according to the critics—best offering of the past several seasons. He is supported by Nora Lane and Chester Conklin in this Paramount comedy release. Coming to the Carolina Theatre on Friday, February 1st, for a matinee performance only.

RUTH ST. DENIS and TED SHAWN and their Denishawn Dancers. Unhesitatingly, without knowing what else is to come, we herald this as the finest and most delightful event of the season, thanking our lucky fates that we are to be permitted again to see this unusual performance. Contrary to our usual policy of forgetting the box office, we suggest that you secure your tickets early, for this is a production that no one in the Sandhills will want to—or can afford to—miss. At the Carolina Theatre, Friday evening, February 1st.

THE PINE CREST INN

Pinehurst, N. C.

A prominent Tourist Bureau wrote one of our former guests for a reference of The Pine Crest Inn. Here is his answer:

"A refined place for recreation. Hotel modern, with steam heat, baths, etc. Extensive precautions against fire. Service attentive, polite and ample. Table abundant and good. Terms reasonable. Am going again in December. Friendships there made are lasting."
