THEATRE

WHY BE GOOD—A comedy-drama with equal emphasis on the humorous and serious qualities of the story. It is an up-to-the-minute picture, showing the modern American girl just as she is, her faults as well as her virtues being presented in an absorbing story that answers the question suggested in the title. The plot centers around Miss Colleen Moore in the character of a salesgirl in a big department store, who is envied as the "hottest" dancer in her crowd. A romance develops with the son of the owner of the store, whose sincere love is poisoned by doubts of her virtue, subtly suggested by his father. The story progresses through
