Homes at Pinehurst

Always from new directions come influences that add to Pinehurst's interest to the big world.

The April Tennis tournaments bring this year a group of players who come to train for a great international event, and also to watch the players in the tournaments.

It is found that at Pinehurst is a good place to train for tennis contests. Conditions and facilities offer the players here advantages that make it worth while to fix this point as a training ground.

Always you see new influences tend to broaden Pinehurst's attractiveness for people in all lines.

So always more people want homes at Pinehurst. Things make this a delectable region.

Why Some People Always
 Send THE OUTLOOK Home

1. It may contain their names in print sometime during the season. At all events, it is the chance of a life time and should not be overlooked.

2. It is even possible that they may, accidentally, wander into the path of the photographer as he makes his lightning dashes about Pinehurst.

3. For those who have friends and relatives in Pinehurst, THE OUTLOOK has been the Village weekly for thirty-four years.

No subscription coupon is attached to this advertisement, but if you really want to subscribe to THE OUTLOOK, it can probably be arranged. It is $2.00 by the season, from now until this time next year.
