On your way north, stop at the New Chamberlin. Make this charming and beautiful hotel headquarters while you visit the most historically interesting area in America. Close by are Jamestown, site of the first permanent English settlement; ancient Williamsburg, now being restored by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.; Yorktown, where the 150th Anniversary of Cornwallis' surrender will be celebrated this year. Situated on the wide waters of Hampton Roads, the New Chamberlin offers beauty of situation, choicest sea-food, and a multitude of diversions.

The best route from Pinehurst is: U. S. No. 1 to Norlina; then, U. S. No. 117 and James River Bridge to Newport News; then, U. S. No. 60 to Old Point.
