On your way north, stop at the New Chamberlin. Make this charming and beautiful hotel headquarters while you visit the most historically interesting area in America. Close by are Jamestown, site of the first permanent English settlement; ancient Williamsburg, now being restored by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.; Yorktown, where the 150th Anniversary of Cornwallis' surrender will be celebrated this year. Situated on the wide waters of Hampton Roads, the New Chamberlin offers beauty of situation, choicest sea-food, and a multitude of diversions. The best route from Pinehurst is: U. S. No. 1 to Norlina; then, U. S. No. 117 and James River Bridge to Newport News; then, U. S. No. 60 to Old Point.

NEXT WEEK

THE OUTLOOK'S Picture Annual of the Pinehurst and Southern Pines season, 1930-31

"Just give me something to remember you by."

To advertisers: The Picture Annual will have a circulation of 1,500. It will carry a limited amount of advertising for which space is now being reserved.

Guests at Pinehurst are invited to visit The Archers Company's shops, located just two miles east of the Village.

The bows and arrows used on the Pinehurst Range are made here by men and women particularly skilled in this craft.

The best of high-grade tournament bows and arrows are made at Pinehurst (America's largest exclusive makers of archery equipment).
