Try It to Tell!

Shooting a bow and arrow is much more interesting than it appears.

We are not asking you to take our word for this. Lots of people at Pinehurst will tell you the same thing.

With Russ Hoogerhyde, national champion, as instructor, Pinehurst is the national center for this pleasant sport.

ON THE MIDLAND ROAD

You Notice, The Depression Does Not Keep Folks From Pinehurst

Pinehurst is so near the section of the North from which winter visitors come, that the distance is no hindrance, and the time spent in travel is slight. More distant sections may note a shortage of winter activities but Pinehurst is just outside of Washington in these days of good roads, fast railroad trains and air travel.

So cottages will always be in demand, rural locations will be sought by a continually increasing number of people, and

The early man at the fishing hole in the morning has the first chance.

RECORDS ARE FALLING FOR HOLHI

Under the HOL-HI cover is a center of amazingly low compression, wound by an exclusive Wilson high-tension winding process. This gives it the true click that lasts, the incredibly long flight and the short game accuracy that mark it as a champion. Play HOL-HI. You'll not find a ball to equal it. Dimple or Mesh.
Price 75c.
