

PINEHURST OUTLOOK

Saturday, January 29, 1938

The woods and fields of Southern Pines echo these days to the clarion cry of the pack, and the huntsman's "Tallyho," as the fox hunting season goes into full swing. The sport bids fair to rival golf as a major attraction of this popular resort