Lassiter, Pender's Store Clerk in Aberdeen Calls Police As Dubious Note Is Tendered For Groceries

Investigation Reveals Four Other Business Places Had Accepted Spurious Money as Genuine; Federal Men Notified

ONE ARREST IS MADE

ABERDEEN, Nov. 25—In the event you have the good fortune to come into intimate contact with a ten dollar note, otherwise designated as a "sawbuck," examine it with extreme care, for the Aberdeen police picked up five counterfeit ten spots here today and arrested Andrew Williams, colored, of Durham, and charged him with passing one of the worthless papers.

Tom Lassiter, manager of the Pender store, thought that a ten dollar bill he said Williams handed him did not feel or look like one of Uncle Sam's masterpieces. He detained the negro and called the police. Officer Beck responded.

It later developed that phoney ten spots had been taken in at Allen's store, Bryan Drug company, Matthew's Market and McDonald's grocery. All were given by negroes in payment for small purchases and change was handed back.

Williams protested his innocence at first, but under examination admitted having hidden four other ten dollar bills in a door jamb of the K and G lunch. He told the police that a strange negro approached him at the railroad station and asked him to change a $10 bill. Williams gave the man one $5 bill and five $1 bills in good money and received in return a folded $10 bill which when unfolded was found to enclose four other bills. These were the five bills for which Williams is held responsible.

Williams denied knowledge of the bills passed in the other stores.

Officer Beck called Mr. Padgett in Charlotte, who is head of the Secret Service in this state, and a representative is expected to continue the investigation.

The WORLD of TODAY

Air Raid Result Disputed

By the Associated Press

British and German official communications fail to agree on the results of a contest at sea in which Nazi bombers attacked British warships. The Germans claim four direct hits but London says that while many bombs were dropped, all missed and fell into the ocean. The Germans also feinted at Naval bases in the Orkney and Shetland Islands and on the Clyde river.

Mine Sowing Protest Asked

Great Britain has asked neutral nations to protest to Germany against unrestricted mine sowing in reply to communications from six nations which object to seizing of German exports regardless of the bottoms in which the goods are being transported. The Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Japan, Sweden and Denmark have all made, or plan to make, representations to Great Britain. In reply the Admiralty has announced that it will put the seizure plan in force on Tuesday.

Mines have replaced submarines as the chief menace to shipping. An Associated Press survey lists 29 ships sunk in the past seven days, the most destructive week since the war started. Seventeen of these ships were sunk by mines. A total of 158 ships have been sunk since the war started, with a gross tonnage of 595,229.

Italy Prepares Her Forces

From Rome announcement came that Italy was maintaining swollen war trade, and at the same time extending military preparation, as Mussolini told foreign correspondents that Italy might enter the war to safeguard her own national interests.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

by Lou Koch

Bill Gale, riding instructor of the Pinehurst Livery Stables is back . . . it took him a week traveling from his summer spot, the Equinox in Manchester, Vt. . . he has many children "pets" among the Sandhills riding colony and it was calling on these youngsters in the various cities on the way down which delayed him . . . sort of a minister without portfolio. . .

The former log cabin Gun Club, located on Woods Road will not be idle this season in view of the fact that the shooting headquarters have been moved to the vicinity of the Pinehurst Kennels. The quaint log structure will be used this season for picnic parties, moonlight rides and other such horsey get-togethers.

That V-8 cocktail, made of the pure juice of eight garden-fresh vegetables, obtainable at the Country Club Grill, must be good. Miss Pierce had to wire for some more the other day, after a rush on it.

A new sign hanging in front of Village Library, same design as former one, represented by candle and book, in yellow and blue.

We hear that somebody slipped a counterfeit dime over on Willie Wilson at the Country Club the other day . . . a wooden one. And then again reports from Aberdeen, to the effect that ten dollar counterfeit bills have been in circulation.

Dr. V. Edward Casanova, who is the holiday guest of Mrs. William H. Parkinson at the Manor with Mrs. Casanova and their two children, is a noted surgeon—at Victory Memorial Hospital in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, N. Y.—of which the late Mr. Parkinson was one of the founders.

The Mid Pines Club opens a week from Friday with John Fitzgerald again at its dignified helm of management.

CLINIC WILL BE RESUMED

Resumption of operation of the Pinehurst syphilis clinic with the cooperation of Dr. C. R. Monroe, resident physician of the Moore County Hospital, was assured yesterday at a meeting between Dr. Monroe and members of the local committee.

L. L. Biddle II., Willard Dunlop, Rev. Dr. T. A. Cheatham and Dr. Frank Owens represented the committee, of which Mrs. Leonard Tufts is chairman.

Dr. Monroe advised the committee that he would obtain equipment necessary to carry on the work from Dr. J. C. Knox, state epidemiologist, and that these materials would be provided immediately and the clinic continued one day each week, with Moore County Hospital providing an attending physician to administer treatments. The county health department will provide a nurse.

The clinic will be resumed in the fire station, and the Chamber of Commerce is to provide the funds for building an added room which is needed for the proper conduct of this important work.

With the resumption of the clinic the local committee hopes to obtain the cooperation of the public in insisting that employees obtain health cards.

TREADWAY RAPS DEFENSE TAX PLAN

Assails New Levies Proposed By Roosevelt As Being Camouflage For Further Government Extravagance

STRIVES FOR AIRLINES SERVICE TO AIRPORT

The Outlook learned last night that Julian Bishop is working diligently for the purpose of having Eastern Airlines, in which company he is a stockholder, arrange for passenger and mail service to the Knollwood Airport.

The field is but four miles off the regular beam of the Eastern Airlines service to the South. While there is a question about large planes being able to take off from the Knollwood field, Mr. Bishop is pressing the company to try a shuttle plane from Raleigh or Charlotte into the Sandhills.

Bay State Congressman is Member of Ways and Means Committee Which Originates New Tax Ideas

VISITS PINEHURST

Congressman Allen Treadway of Massachusetts, frequent Pinehurst visitor, led the opposition to new taxes yesterday in Washington when he attacked the President's plan to impose new duties for the purpose of raising money for emergency defense costs.

"The plan for additional taxes for national defense," said Congressman Treadway, "is a camouflage for further extravagance by the Federal government."

Congressman Treadway is a minority member of the Ways and Means committee where new thoughts on taxes are originated. Senator Vandenberg of Michigan gave qualified endorsement to the President's plan, saying the taxes should be on a pay-as-you-go basis.

The nation's defense expenditures, which President Roosevelt indicated yesterday would be further increased, are averaging during the current year about $14 per person—man woman or child.

Official figures showed the army has or anticipates funds totalling $956,013,029, including a deficiency estimate of $119,000,000 which Mr. Roosevelt sent to Congress this month to cover extraordinary expenses due to the European war.

The navy's share of the bill for the fiscal year ending next June 30 totals $924,236,151, including the deficiency estimate of $146,049,000 for expenses of the Atlantic coast neutrality patrol.
