Find Mr. Weeks' Ball, Then Hunt Lost Bag

When John Weeks hit one of those tremendous tee shots off the seventh tee of the championship course recently the caddies and members of the fourball game had some doubt in their mind if the ball would ever be recovered.

A hunting party of eight, including caddies and players, struck out for the woods. Ralph, Mr. Weeks' caddie, put down the bag he was toting in order to be better able to range about in search of the ball.

Monte Livermore, George Whaley and William Kellogg were playing with Mr. Weeks and one of these gentlemen discovered the lost ball, far in the woods. This made all hands glad, save Ralph, Mr. Weeks' caddie.

It now developed that Mr. Weeks' bag was lost, and the searching party had to return to the woods to hunt for the bag. "What a slice," said Mr. Livermore.

A PEDERSEN FINISH

Walter Pedersen and James Hunter played an even game yesterday against Purvis Ferree and Roof Gilson over the championship course. Most sensational play of the day was the finish of Pedersen. From the 13th hole, he was 4 4 2 4 3 4.

BIRD HUNTERS HAVE SOME LUCK DESPITE ADVERSE CONDITIONS

Edwin A. Bigelow Reports He Bagged 15 Quail; Warm Weather and Abundance of Leaves Hamper Nimrods

The season on game birds opened in North Carolina December 1 and after two days in the woods in the vicinity of Pinehurst, hunters have had some luck, although conditions are not good, due to warm weather and the abundance of leaves which continue to cling to the short oak trees.

Edwin A. Bigelow of Worcester hunted yesterday over the Horseshoe Quail Farm property near Carthage and bagged 15 quail.

John T. Blossom of Cleveland found some shooting over the same coverts, and Curtis Wigg, hunting with Jesse Rankin near Ellebe, got a few birds.

John Fritz Achelis shot a wild turkey on the Horseshoe Quail Farm property.

Mr. Wigg reports that the hunting will improve with colder weather. He estimated that two good frosts and a stiff wind will help matters. He says that at present the birds are difficult to locate and hard to shoot because of the protection given by the leaves on the oak trees.

A deer hunt and quail hunting are on the program for guests of the Pine Needles next week.

Tin Whistles To Play In Becker Memorial

The fourth Charlton L. Becker Memorial tournament for members of the Tin Whistle Club will be played today on the number three golf course. This is an 18-hole medal play competition from handicap.

Harlow S. Pierson won the event last year with a round of 77 and a net of 64. In 1937 Lou Hamilton was the winner, and in 1938 Thomas Rudel.

A field of about 40 is expected to compete today and the excellent handicap system of the Tin Whistle Club gives every member a chance to win.

PINEHURST SCOREBOARD

by LOU KOCH

Witnessing a program which was chock-full of variety and fun, a crowd of over 500, made up of cottagers, hotel guests and others attended the first Pinehurst gymkhana of the season at the Carolina Riding Ring Thanksgiving afternoon. The events, in order of running were: Musical Stalls, Ribbon Race, Potato Race, Turkey Dash, and an open jump. Sandwiched in between the Turkey event and the jump, was a special surprise treat, the presentation of Peter Astra, Pinehurst-trained wonder trotter of the 1939 racing circuit, and also the pure white filly, Snow White, both charges of Dr. H. M. Parshall at the Pinehurst training camp. Peter Astra was led to the center of the ring and was introduced to the gallery which circled the entire riding ring, by Mr. W. H. Watt, noted patron of the harness horse field. Mr. Watt referred to the famous trotter's record, his start in nine races and the winning of all, except one heat. Among his 1939 laurels, Mr. Watt emphasized the capture of the classic stake of the year, The Hambletonian, held at Goshen, N. Y., in August. Astra's winnings, under the ownership of Dr. L. M. Guillinger of Andover, Ohio and the guidance of trainer Parshall totaled $45,000 for the year. As a two year old he won $10,800. Through Parshall's counsel, the Andover doctor refused a recent offer of $30,000 for the three year old. Mr. Watt then introduced Dr. Parshall, who also praised his charge.

At this point, stable attendants brought into the ring a huge "bouquet," made up of handsome ears of yellow corn, apples, carrots and other appetizing equine nick-nacks. The "bouquet" was placed (Continued on page four)

After some informal discussion it was decided to call a special meeting of the chamber on December 14 to discuss at that time definite plans for the annual banquet to be held during January.

Helsinki Forms New Cabinet As Soviets Announce Rebel Finnish Government is Set up at Terijoki

BOMBS KILL THIRTY

Finnish successes were reported last night on land and sea by the little Republic of Finland in its struggle against the Soviet Union.

Thirty women and children were reported killed by Russian bombs in Helsinki and other cities.

A battle between Russian warships and land batteries at Hango, Southeastern port, guarding the entrance to the Gulf of Finland, witnessed the cruiser Kirow, 8,500 tons, blasted out of the ocean with 500 men on board. The Russian warships withdrew.

Action was reported from the Arctic tip where the Soviets put into wartime usage the new method of landing ground forces by parachute from planes. Hundreds of infantrymen were dropped in the North, and were reported to have captured some border villages.

Finnish resistance was strong along the 800 mile front, and 18 Russian tanks were reported destroyed. Another report from Helsinki said that 16 Russian planes had been shot down, a number of these over that city.

Significant Political Movements Observed

The political moves of the day included the formation of a new Cabinet in Helsinki, headed by Risto Ryti, Governor of the Bank of Finland and with Vaino Tanner, as Foreign Minister. Tanner is reported as friendly to Russia.

The new government, according to reports from Moscow, is not satisfactory to the Soviets, who declare that a "People's Government of the Democratic Republic of Finland" has been formed in Terijoki, Finnish town near the Russian border.

Helsinki reports said that news that a rebel government had been formed in Terijoki, brought "laughter."
