NORWAY CALLS SCANDINAVIAN POWERS' PARLEY

By the Associated Press

A Copenhagen report says that Norway issued a rush call Tuesday for a conference of Scandinavian countries to explore the possibilities of a peaceful settlement of the Finnish-Russian war and to take stock of their own alarming situation.

Emphasizing the earnest desire of the Northern country to re-establish peace, the Norwegian Foreign Minister invited the foreign ministers of Sweden and Denmark to meet with him in Oslo Thursday.

Sweden, showing increasing alarm at the Soviet incursion into Finland, mined her territorial waters near the Finnish-owned Aaland Islands in the Baltic and took other precautionary steps to strengthen her defenses.

FINNS CLAIM MANY PRISONERS CAPTURED

In Helsinki, the Finnish army last night reported the capture of many Russian prisoners and the destruction of eight enemy tanks in the Karelian peninsula while their air force bombed Soviet bases beyond the Arctic Circle.

The losses were inflicted on the invaders at Salmi on the north shore of Lake Ladoga, after the Russians launched a heavy artillery attack, it was reported, with the Finns using a new automatic rifle with deadly effect.

Fighting back fiercely against the invaders Finnish flyers were reported in Norwegian dispatches during the day to have raided a Soviet air base at Murmansk, and to have destroyed 60 Russian planes with bombs. Another Finnish air raid on the Baltic port which Russia leased from Estonia and from which Soviet bombers are alleged to have set out for Helsinki was reported.

ROOSEVELT STUDYING PLAN TO HELP FINLAND

In Washington, as a further gesture of sympathy for Finland, President Roosevelt disclosed yesterday that he was seeking a method of using the Finnish war debt payments for the benefit of the little Baltic nation now being attacked by Russia.

The President told of his plan for the Finnish war debt payment at a press conference, in the course of which he replied an abrupt and emphatic negative to a question whether it would be unneutral to forgive the Finnish debt payment under the circumstances.

As to what would ultimately be worked out, Mr. Roosevelt was uncertain.

ITALIANS SEEK TO ENLIST IN FINNISH ARMY

In Rome, scores of Italians sought to enlist in the Finnish army Tuesday to fight against the Russians. Applications poured into the Finnish legation as police prevented 1000 university students from marching upon the Soviet embassy to express their sympathy for Finland.

Many young Italians appeared at the Finnish legation in person to offer their services.

PINEHURST SCOREBOARD

by ROBERT E. HARLOW

Scoreboard's old friend William F. Steedman, golf editor of The Seattle (Washington) Times, in a recent issue of his excellent publication, wrote the following:

LYRICS OF THE LOCKER ROOM

There's a chap whose lonely lot in life I heartily deplore. He hardly knows what human friendship means. You only think about him when you're feeling glum and sore. I'm referring to the Keeper of the Greens.

When the fairway's firm and springy and the greens are smooth and true and your soul in pride and ecstasy exults, you seldom pause to pay the recognition that is due to the man whose work accomplished such results.

But let your tee shot finish in a close or cuppy lie, or your putt slide off a tuft of grass and miss—in wrath you'll lift your hands and eyes and voice to heav'n and cry "Do we pay a man for such a job as this?"

At appointed times and seasons, when on fairways, greens and tees the fertilizer's nourishment is spread, and the acrid fumes of fish-glue float upon the gentle breeze, don't you ever think that grasses must be fed?

No, you cuss the Keeper of the Greens, confound his blasted eyes and demand in heated word and plaintive tone that the green committee fire him, though you ought to realize that you grow no grass with perfumes of Cologne!

When the club is having trouble keeping out of carmine ink, to the chairman of finance you're quick to go and murmur in his ear the sly suggestion "Don't you think the greens department's spending too much dough?"

The engine of the tractor may be coughing out its lungs, and the units of the mower may be shot, and the turf for food may holler with its million starving tongues—but they'll cut the greensman's budget, like as not.

Then he'll coax the dying motor, he'll get by with worn-out tools, he will scrimp and save on seed and oil and gas, and despite the interference of some unenlightened fools, somehow he will contrive to give you grass.

When the product of his labors in the spring's returning sun shines forth in verdant beauty o'er the land, he doesn't wait your plaudits for the work that he has done, for he knows they are but few who understand.

The sweetest praise he ever gets is silence most profound that welcomes him when all is going well. He knows the only time the boys will ever gather round is when they wish to give him plenty hell.
