

PIG RACE PROVES LOTS OF SPORT

MISS NOLWEN de JANZE

of Paris, France, experiences some difficulty in making a starter in the pig race stay on the course at the gymkhana at The Carolina Hotel, Sunday

Photo by Hemmer Outlook Engraving

Amateur-Professional Golf League Is Formed

Donald J. Ross Named President of Organization Which Will Conduct Series of Tournaments in January

The Sandhills amateur-professional golf league has been formed by representatives of the Pinehurst Country Club, Southern Pines Country Club, Pine Needles Golf Club and Mid Pines Golf Club.

Donald J. Ross was named as president, and the tournament committee is composed of Mr. Ross, George Dunlap Jr., J. J. Fitzgerald and Howard Burns.

A schedule of four one day tournaments has been announced on the following dates.

- January 8, Pine Needles.
- January 15, Southern Pines.
- January 22, Mid Pines.
- January 29, Pinehurst.

Professionals located in the Sandhills for the winter will be eligible, and can have one, two or three partners for each tournament. Prizes for each event will be provided by the host club.

Entry fees for both professionals and amateurs will be $2.50 for each amateur-pro event.

All competition will be at 18 holes, medal play, under handicap. While each event will constitute a distinct competition, records will be kept for the series, and a club winner and individual team winner for the league determined.

The winning club will be awarded the Tom Cotton trophy, and the league will provide prizes for the individual team returning the lowest net score for the 72 holes.

In order to determine the club winners, the lowest net score returned by any pair representing a club will be taken at each tournament, but for the individual team championship, only an amateur - professional combination

(Continued on page four)

YOUTHFUL ENTHUSIASTS ENJOY GYMKHANA

GEORGE THE III AND KAY THE II

The children of Mr. and Mrs. George Dunlap Jr. sit on a fence railing and enjoy the gymkhana. George is pointing out an incident in the pig race. He is wearing his new Heigh-O-Silver suit. Photo by Hemmer Outlook Engraving

Mid-Southern Bridge Tourney Plans Made

Annual Pinehurst Series Listed for Jan. 26-27 at Carolina Hotel; Mrs. Fenner Director Again

The annual Pinehurst Mid-Southern Bridge tournament will be held at The Carolina Hotel January 26 and 27. Mrs. Anna Baker Fenner of Tarboro again will direct the affair, her assistants including Mrs. Claude Ramsay of Pinehurst, Mrs. Phin Horton of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Curtis Sprague of Flushing, N. Y. and Mrs. Lillian Rutzler of Lexington, Va. A. B. Vogel of Spartanburg, S. C. and W. A. Swain of Raleigh will be official scorers.

The first qualifying match, in which everyone is eligible, will be held Friday, Jan. 26 at 8:00 p. m. Trophies will be awarded for North-South and East-West winners in all sections. The Mitchell Movement will be used. The second qualifying match, with everyone eligible, will be held Saturday, Jan. 27, at 1:30 p. m., also under the Mitchell Movement. The championship play-off, composed of the 16 highest pairs will compete under the Howell Movement Saturday, Jan. 27 in the evening. Grand trophies will go to series winners.

An innovation will be the inauguration of a single session for Carolina trophies, beginning Saturday, Jan. 27 evening at 8:30. There will be grand trophies for highest North-South and highest East-West pairs, and trophies for North-South and East-West winners in all sections.

Mrs. Fenner is chairman of the tournament executive committee, the rest of the committee comprising Ralph Van Lanningham Jr. of Charlotte, Capus Waynick of High Point, Ross Lindsay of Bennettsville, George

(Continued on page two)

PINEHURST SCOREBOARD

by ROBERT E. HARLOW

The score last night was University of Chicago $8,000,000; the All-America football universities $000,000,000. These figures are in reverse with those published during the football season, when Chicago was taking terrific beatings from all opponents.

A short time ago Chicago decided to quit football altogether. Within the past few days $8,000,000 has been donated to the institution on the south side of the loop, which this year had the worst big league football team in America.

Robert Hutchins, Chicago's president, one college prexy who succeeded in keeping himself at least two newspaper paragraphs in front of his own football coach, has moved from the bottom of the intercollegiate league to the top. It seems that in the "Bequests" league football does not rate.

"A University," declared a competent critic, "can not buy much with newspaper headlines, but with $8,000,000 it can cut a dash in education."

Orson C. Wells, retired Chicago broker, who died in Florida, December 10, left $2,000,000 to Chicago. Albert D. Lasker, Chicago

(Continued on page four)

AWARDS ANNOUNCED BY CHAMBER GROUP FOR DECORATIONS

The Pinehurst Chamber of Commerce, through its president, E. S. Blodgett, has made public the following report of the special committee consisting of H. B. Emery, chairman, Rev. T. A. Cheatham and Rev. A. J. McKelway, to pass on the merits of the village decorations during the holiday period.

Most beautiful outdoor decorations, William McCullough.

Most elaborate private dwelling decorations, Raymond S. Farr.

Best displays made by the junior boys and girls, George Sherrerd Jr.

Special mention for the window decorations of Chester I. Williams.

Thirty-seven outdoor decorations, 11 interior or window decorations, four combined outdoor and window decorations, made a total number of 52 decorated residences in the village of Pinehurst.

All of the hotels and many of the business houses joined in the general plan, and made beautiful decorative displays.

The Chamber of Commerce wishes to thank all those who so heartily responded to its appeal, and hopes that another year many more will wish to join in the general plan to make the holiday decorations of the village a charming feature of the Pinehurst holiday season.

WAR NEWS ON PAGE FOUR

GOV. A. HARRY MOORE OF NEW JERSEY IS ON VISIT TO PINEHURST

Governor A. Harry Moore of New Jersey, now a Pinehurst "regular," is a guest at The Carolina for a week's sojourn with a group of other Jerseyites.

Gov. Moore expects to return to New Jersey in time for the meeting of the state legislature, Jan. 9, when the question of horse racing in New Jersey will be the subject of consideration as a bill. The racing question was put up to the people of the state as a referendum last June, getting an "aye" vote by a good majority. The bill is expected to be formed, outlining the duties of a racing commission, following which Gov. Moore will appoint a commission most likely of four members, two Republicans and two Democrats.

Gov. Moore said last night that he believed three race tracks would be established, one in Hudson county, nearest the metropolitan district, another in Monmouth county and another to be situated somewhere between Camden and Atlantic City.

Other members of the party are Col. Hugh H. Kelly, Judge Frank H. Eggers and N. Louis Paladeau Jr., all of Jersey City, and Judge John Colt of Princeton.

They all combine the pleasures of Pinehurst equestrian activity with golf.

WEATHER

Fair and continued cold. Thursday increasing cloudiness and slightly warmer.

PROGRAM OF FORUM RECITAL INCLUDES POPULAR CLASSICS

An interesting joint program will be presented by John E. Toms, tenor, and Herbert Livingston, pianist, at the Forum tomorrow night.

Mr. Toms, who is director of Vocal Music at the University of North Carolina, is a graduate of the Conservatory of Music at Oberlin, and of the University of Michigan. He has studied with Edgar Schofield in New York and Sylvan Levin in Philadelphia. Extremely youthful in appearance, Mr. Toms has, besides his studying, headed the voice department.

(Continued on page four)

MRS. PAGE WILL TEAM WITH JANE CRUM IN EXHIBITION SUNDAY

An interesting golf match will be played at The Pinehurst Country Club Sunday afternoon, January 7, at 1:30 p. m., when Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page and Miss Jane Crum will meet Miss Kathryn Hemphill and Miss Helen Dettweiler in a bestball match.

Mrs. Page, former national champion, will be playing with the new find among Carolina women golfers. Miss Crum is a student at the University of South Carolina, and has great promise.

Miss Dettweiler, formerly a Washington, D. C., amateur, joined the professional ranks recently as a representative for The Wilson Sporting Goods company, Chicago. She was among the nation's foremost amateur players when she followed Mrs. Opal Hill into the pro ranks.

Miss Hemphill has been a ranking player for a number of years.

It will be a treat to see these four experts on the number three course. The public is invited.

PRACTICE POLO LISTED

Another practice polo match will be held at the Pinehurst Race Track Field tomorrow afternoon beginning at 2:30. Everyone is invited to attend. There will be no admission charge, the game being held to determine just what the line up will be for the real game next Sunday.

WHAT TO DO AND SEE

Today

Weekly bridge luncheon at The Carolina this morning beginning at 10:15

AT THE THEATRES

- Pinehurst -
Tonight at 8:30, matinee at 3:00, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," with Charles Laughton.

- Southern Pines -
Today and tomorrow at 8:15, matinee tomorrow at 3:00, "Reverie," with Richard Dix and Gail Patrick.

- Aberdeen Theatre -
Today at 7:15 and 9:00, "The City of Darkness," with Charlie Chan. Cash Award Night.