RAYMOND HOAGLAND'S RUMSON FARM DAWN WINS FIELD TRIAL

Owner Handles Winning Entry In Amateur All-Age Stake; Open Event Braces Will be Concluded Today

The amateur all-age stake of the annual Pinehurst Field Trial Club events was finished up yesterday and eight of the ten braces of the open all age were also held. The two remaining braces of the open event will be run off this morning, to be followed by the open derby.

Rumson Farm Dawn, a white and black pointer dog owned and handled by Raymond Hoagland of Cartersville, Ga., captured first honors in the amateur. Dawn had one good find which was handled well.

Second and third places were taken by two pointers of Edwin H. Vare Jr. of Merion, Pa.; Martini, a white and liver dog, placed second with one single, Tips Manitoba Jake, being placed in third position on class. Milligans Stylish Mac, owned and handled by R. D. Kellam of Wilmington, Del., took fourth place, also being judged on class.

Major Trammell Scott of Atlanta and Ford E. Young of Washington judged the events.

Following the completion of the open all-age, which should be this morning, the open derby will be held.

Remaining two open all-age events:

9. Vestal Hills Laddie
Air Sam
 10. Nepken's Carolina Jake
Dawn's Highland Bill
- Open derby braces:

BODY IDENTIFIED AS HIS ARMY MAN MUCH ALIVE

KEY WEST, Fla., Jan. 11.—(P)—Henry D. Hatch, 35, of Hamlet, N. C., walked into an undertaking establishment today and informed the mortician a body identified as his was someone else's.

Deputy Sheriff Roy Hamlin reported yesterday the body, found in a swimming pool with wrists and ankles bound, had been identified as Hatch by six acquaintances.

Hatch said he joined the army Jan. 5 and was stationed at the barracks here.

Meeting Next Tuesday To Set Dog Show Date

Tuesday night, January 16, at 8 p. m., at the Pine Needles Club House, friends of the dog in the Sandhills will gather to perfect an organization which will hold a show sometime during the spring season.

Members of the nominating committee met last night at Pine Needles and made up the slate it will recommend as officers. Dr. J. I. Neal is chairman of this committee. Other members are Emmett Boone, Samuel Allen and Col. George P. Hawes.

Memberships in the club are being sold rapidly. All dog lovers are urged to join.

PINEHURST SCOREBOARD

by ROBERT E. HARLOW

Figures recently released by the United States Golf Association are worthy of some study by those interested in selling America on the value of golf, particularly amateur golf. The figures indicate that the U. S. G. A. needs to put some professional promotion behind the build up for the national amateur championship.

The national amateur was played in Chicago last September and drew a gate of $3,654.00, a new low since the days when gate money has been charged for this event. The national women's championship, played in Connecticut, did $3,525.00, only $120 less than the amateur.

An interesting comparison in connection with the poor showing made by the national amateur in Chicago this summer is provided by the figures for admissions for the 1938 women's national, which was played in Chicago, at a club within a mile of the location of the 1939 amateur. In 1938, the women's in Chicago drew better than $6,000 in gate money.

When the women's national can outpull the amateur, practically two to one, something must account for it, and that something was "professional promotion." The women's of 1938 had it, and the am-

FUN GUARANTEED — BE AT BANQUET!

Tonight's the night — all you citizens and guests of Moore County — to come up to the Carolina Hotel in Pinehurst, and for the sum of one dollar, plus ten cents tax, to have one of the most enjoyable evenings possible.

The event is the banquet and dance of the joint Chambers of Commerce of Moore County: Southern Pines, Pinehurst, Carthage and Aberdeen, sponsored by the Southern Pines Chamber of Commerce and the Southern Pines Junior Chamber of Commerce. Fun is guaranteed — in the form of food, humor, song, exhibition dancing and dancing with your wife or sweetheart after the rest of the program is over. All invited. "Curtain" at 8:00 o'clock.

MR. AND MRS. WEEKS IN STORM AT SEA

PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. John Weeks Jr. of Southern Pines were caught in a storm in a small fishing boat off Boca Raton, Fla., and prevented from returning to the dock for several hours.

The delay caused Mr. and Mrs. Weeks to appear at a cocktail party given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. George S. Fenton, Palm Beach, at 7:30 p. m. although the invitations read from 5 until 7.

The guests waited patiently, and when Mr. Weeks, who is quite a sailor, explained the rough going they had had in making port, all was forgiven, and the business in hand resumed quietly.

Among the guests was Chester I. Williams of Pinehurst.

Oakmont Golfers Playing at Pinehurst

A group of Oakmont Country Club members are enjoying their annual visit in Pinehurst as guests of C. B. Fownes. Among the number is Judge Robert M. Gibson, Judge of the Federal Court of Western Pennsylvania, Harry Nebb, Thomas S. Jamison, and William Stitt, secretary and manager of the Oakmont Club.

MEDLIN - FARR TEAM SCORES VICTORY IN TIN WHISTLE GOLF

Winners Card Net 65 Over No. Three Course, Differential Giving Them 68; Two Teams Tie for Second

Your correspondent was engaged in a game of hearts last evening when the final results of the Tin Whistle match were being posted, and failed to obtain a detailed story of the great victory scored by Dr. E. M. Medlin of Aberdeen and Raymond S. Farr of Boston in the bestball of pair competition. These gentlemen returned a card of 31-34-65, took a 3 stroke penalty for playing number three course for a total of 68, which was good enough to win.

Last night, after some effort, Dr. Medlin was located and reported on the incidents of the winning round.

The telephone conversation follows:

Reporter: Is that Dr. Medlin?
Voice: Yes Sir, what can I do for you?

Reporter: Well, congratulations on winning the Tin Whistle with Mr. Farr. How did you do it?

Dr. Medlin: I'm just good, I guess.

Reporter: How about Mr. Farr?

Dr. Medlin: He was good, too.

Reporter: Any highlights?

Dr. Medlin: We used our strokes to advantage. I think we divided the work very well. We were out in 31 and back in 34.

Reporter: That was something. Can you call the hole by hole-detail?

Dr. Medlin: Here it is:

NORRIS L. HODGKINS NEW PRESIDENT OF SOUTHERN PINES BANK

D. G. Stutz Resigns Position He Held Since 1935; Good Report is Heard by Stockholders

At their annual meeting Tuesday afternoon, stockholders of the Citizens Bank & Trust Company of Southern Pines, elected Norris L. Hodgkins president to succeed D. G. Stutz, who, due to the pressure of other interests, found it necessary to relinquish the office he had held, and ably conducted, since 1935.

Mr. Hodgkins, in charge of the detailed operations of the bank during the past five years, will also continue to hold his present office of cashier. Miss Ethel S. Jones, assistant cashier, will continue to act in that capacity.

The stockholders also re-elected the following directors: George C. Abraham, P. T. Barnum, N. L. Hodgkins, George C. Moore, D. G. Stutz, K. B. Trousdell and Frank Welch. C. L. Austin, Southern Pines contractor, was elected a new member of the board.

In his report to the stockholders, Mr. Stutz said that 1939 was a year of progress for the institution, deposits having increased approximately 13 per cent during the year, and earnings having been satisfactory. A 6 per cent dividend was paid to the stockholders on January 1, 1940.
