1,000 BOMBS RAINED ON FINNISH CITIES AND FIELD HOSPITAL

HELSINKI, Jan. 29 — (AP) — Russian war planes, winging their way out of the southeast in waves, rained more than 1,000 bombs on southern Finnish cities today, and first reports indicated that scores of civilians had been killed or wounded. The raid, the worst of the war in some sections, came as Finns cheered news of fresh successes on the front north of Lake Ladoga, where the Russians were officially reported to have left more than 1,200 dead on two snowy battlefields.

Hanko, Turku and Provo were among the cities which felt the power of the Russian air armada.

Twenty-three persons, four of them women, were killed when the squadron of war birds dropped through low clouds and blasted a field hospital in a tiny village behind the Karelian isthmus front.

J. MILTON ROBINSON, FORMER HOTEL MAN, DIES AT AGE OF 89

Operated Boarding Houses in Pinehurst Around 1897 Before Becoming Manager of Berkshire; Death Occurs in Florida

J. Milton Robinson, 89, who for over a quarter of a century was one of the most popular hotel managers in the Sandhills, died in Lake Worth, Fla. on Jan. 17 following an operation.

Mr. Robinson, prior to his coming to Pinehurst was manager of the Chiswick in Littleton, N. H. He came to Pinehurst around 1897, and ran the Cedars and the Radcliffe cottage as boarding houses. Later he was made manager of the Berkshire. Following that he took over the Piney Woods Inn in Southern Pines, which he managed until it was destroyed by fire in 1910, at which time he went into the real estate business with the late C. H. McLaughlin. Together they built several homes in Southern Pines, until Mr. Robinson's retirement in 1926, when he went to Florida to make his home there.

He is survived by his widow, Eleanor, and three sons, Fletcher and Carl of Boston, Mass., and Gardner of North Reading, Pa.

The case of Rabe Gains, colored man of Jackson Hamlet, who was arrested for breaking into a house in Jackson Hamlet, was brought before Judge J. Vance Rowe in Carthage yesterday. Judge Rowe ordered the case held over for Superior Court in May.
