COMMISSIONERS GET $10,000 CHECK FOR LIQUOR SALE PROFITS

Payment Brings Total Received from Alcoholic Beverages Control Board to $120,000 Since Stores Opened

With little ado and without high sounding phrases, Dorsey G. Stutz, Southern Pines member of the Moore County Alcoholic Beverages Control Board and H. Alton Matthews, board supervisor, turned over to J. Wilbur Currie, chairman of the board of commissioners of Moore County yesterday a check for $10,000, profits accruing from liquor sales made in the Pinehurst PONY KICKS GOAL and Southern Pines stores.

The Moore County Alcoholic Beverages Control Board records show that since the county took over the operation of the stores a total of $120,000 has been turned over to the county board of commissioners. Of this amount $40,000 was received by the county in 1937-1938; $50,000 in 1938-1939, and so far this year $30,000 has been presented to the commissioners. The Moore County ABC fiscal year ends March 31.

MARE PRINTS WILL BE SHOWN IN EXHIBITION AT PINE NEEDLES CLUB

Collection from Galloway Galleries in New York to be on Display at Tea Next Saturday

An early season affair of note is the exhibition and tea arranged by Miss Catherine Pierson of Southern Pines, to be held at the Pine Needles Club, on Saturday afternoon, February 10 from 4 to 6, at which time many period. rare old prints from the galleres of Harry Galloway of New fork will be on view.

Mr. Galloway, who is an individual collector, numbers among his collection a wide variety of subjects, among them Dr. Thornton's flower prints; Brookshaw fruits; Audubon and Gould representing bird life; sporting Prints by Harry Alkens and John Leech; Chinese prints done on rice Paper; and a host of others rich historical lore and beauty.

This unusually interesting colection is greatly enhanced in Value since the conditions abroad have virtually put a stop to adding more items. Artist and layman alike will be delighted to have this opportunity to view so many pictures which can never e duplicated or replaced. Those who may wish to purchase, can find something for every taste and occasion. What, for example, ould make a more perfect Valentine than the exquisite "Flowers of Loveliness, Female Figres Emblematic of Flowers' lating back to 1836?

Although she has issued only 50 invitations, Miss Pierson will probably be hostess to about 200 guests, as many of those inited are expected to bring riends and house guests with

JAPS CHASE GHOST

HONGKONG, Feb. 5 — (AP) Japanese reported their "ghost" chase advancing today, with Chinese forces in inner Mongolia in flight from several lost strongholds.

Advices from the far northern front said the Chinese had been driven from Wuyuan and Linho.

The "ghost" the Japanese are hunting is General Ma Chan-Shan, Chinese leader whom they reported killed eight years ago, but who has been a thorn in their sides several times since.

THAT GIVES CAMDEN VICTORY IN POLO

CAMDEN, S. C., Feb. 4-Polo fans who attended the game here Sunday between Camden and the Sandhills Polo Club of Pinehurst witnessed a spectacular contest which had an amusing finale when the pony ridden by C. P. Dubose, playing number two for Camden, kicked the winning goal in the final chukker. The final score was Camden 7, Sandhills 6.

Spectators were pleased by a thrilling game and predicted that a revival of the polo in the Sandhills section would mean much in the development of the sport in the Mid-South.

Pinehurst scored in the first chukker when the hard-riding Earl Shaw hit his best stride and tallied twice. In the third chukker Camden scored twice and the South Carolina players took a 4 to 2 lead in the fourth. Pinehurst, on goals by Captain Dave Erskine and Henry Gibson Barnard Jr. tied the score in the fifth

The sixth and final chukker saw the ponies well in the action. First, the ball hit the pony of Captain Erskine and rolled through the Pinehurst goal for Camden. This play tied the

Just before the final whistle, Dubose of Camden drove down the field and his pony kicked the ball through the Pinehurst goal for the winning tally.

GOLF LEAGUE SWINGS BACK INTO ACTION

The Sandhills amateur-professional golf league will swing back into action today when the second tournament of the series of four will be held at the Mid Pines Club, with John J. Fitzgerald in the host position.

The amateur-professional league has met with stormy going, but the enthusiasm has outlasted the bad weather and today all will be merry and gay as the professionals and their amateur partners seek to win the individual honors of the second tournament and better their position in the league standing.

Ten professionals and 30 amateur's would make a full quota for the tournament.

George Dunlap Jr. and Ted Turner of Pine Needles are leading the league with a fine round of net 65, played over Pine Needles, when the first tournament was held last month.

The third tournament will be played at Southern Pines, and the final event at the Pinehurst Country Club.

PINEHURST SCOREBOARD

by ROBERT E. HARLOW

The effort of the Sandhills Polo Club to build a strong team under the direction of Earl Shaw and Merrill Fink is meeting with success and some thrilling sport is promised for Sunday games during the remainder of the season.

The Southern Circuit Polo tournament will be played here the last week in March, or first week in April, and by that time Mr. Shaw hopes to have two teams representing the Sandhills club. One of these would be composed of North Carolina players and the other team selected from polo players from outside the state.

The next game at Pinehurst will be played Sunday afternoon, February 11 at 3 p. m. when the Sandhills and Blind Brook sides will play. Games will also be played on Monday, and Wednesday, February 12 and 14. All polo players wishing to get into action in these contests will be welcomed by Mr. Shaw and Mr. Fink.

The pick of the entire Pinehurst squad will be used on Sunday, February 18, when Pinehurst will try and get even for the 7 and 6 defeat administered by Camden in the South Carolina resort last Sunday. A pony kicked the winning goal for Camden.

Mr. Shaw was well satisfied with the showing made by Pinehurst in the Camden game. The Camden players have been together for three seasons, whereas the Sandhills team is just getting up steam and had not played together until this year. Mr. Shaw feels that by February 18 his players will have gained sufficient experience together and that with the replacements he will have available Moore County Hospital Auxili- Pinehurst will reverse the Camden decision of last Sunday.

Six North Carolina players have already appeared for the Sandclassroom at the hospital tomor- hills. They are R. B. Brown and B. R. Cushman and Horne Take Second Place With 70; 32 Take Part in Handicap Best Ball Contest

J. Pryor Williamson and Chester F. Williams won the Tin Whistle tournament yesterday, played over the championship course, with a handicap best ball of 32-36—68.

Second place was won by Herbert E. Cushman and G. Edward Horne with 35-35-70.

There were 32 competitors.

Four net 2's aided the winners. The first of these came at the second hole when Mr. Williamson holed a chip shot for a birdie three, and with his handicap

On the ninth Mr. Williams holed a ten foot putt for a two. On enjoyed a successful season, but the back nine Mr. Williamson holed par threes on the 15th and 17th holes and with strokes obtained deuces.

The winners had only one bad hole, the tenth, where each required a seven.

Both Mr. Cushman and Mr. Horne contributed to the success of this pair in doing a 70. Mr. Cushman had gross fours on the third, sixth, ninth and 15th holes, and Mr. Horne had a three at nine which netted a two, and fours at 13 and 15 which netted

PINEHURST GUIDE BOOK OF FORTY YEARS AGO IS INTERESTING READING

Copy in Possession of H. B. Emery Graphically Pictures Life of Community in Earlier Days; Cycle Track Around Links

"Pinehurst offers unequaled attractions for refined people, and at very moderate cost. The cottages and suites are rented all furnished, with the exception of bed and table linen. No intoxicating beverages are sold." Thus were the attractions of Pinehurst set forth some 40 years ago in a booklet entitled "Pinehurst Guide Book," one of the few remaining copies of which is in the possession of H. B. Emery.

The booklet was published by the Pinehurst Outlook Press around 1900 and presents a very graphic picture of life in the village at that time. The purpose of the pamphlet is set forth in the foreword which says, "Walks, rides and drives about Pinehurst and vicinity prove very pleasing, and the object of this little pamphlet is to assist a recent arrival to find his way about and direct him to the different points he will probably wish to visit."

It is illustrated with photographs showing some of the buildings and places of interest in the surrounding countryside. One is a picture of what was then known as the "Golf Club House," a rather extraordinary structure, which is described as "an attractive club house, standing close by the entrance to the grounds
