MAYOR CAMPBELL FALLS OFF HORSE CHASING REYNARD

Limps Into Carolina With Broken Bowler Hat In One Hand and Tortured Torso In Other.

MUSIC BY HOUNDS

The Honorable George D. Campbell, a Grafton, Massachusetts boy, who became Mayor of Poughkeepsie, New York, and amassed a fortune in the contracting and Hotel business, limped into the lobby of the Carolina Hotel about noon Thursday holding a broken derby hat in one hand and a tortured torso in the other.

For many years a whip for the Hound Hunt Club of Poughkeepsie, former Mayor Campbell eagerly accepted an invitation to hunt with the Moore County hounds, for chasing the fox is one of his Honor's favorite sports.

An expert horseman, Mr. Campbell arose at dawn to join the merry group which was tally-ho minded. Away they went behind the famous pack of twenty couples, forty eager dogs, followed by the Master of the Hounds, James Boyd, whips Bill Straton and Merritt Shuggs, Field Master Almet Jenks and a dozen other enthusiasts, including the ex-Mayor of Poughkeepsie.

In no minutes the pack picked up a scent, and sweet music rose in the early morning air of Moore County, as a chorus of forty hounds, all superlative singers, gave tongue to a famous eating song, which since the 18th century in England, has never lost its popularity among the pack, and is dedicated to Sir Reynard, the foxy one.

The first hunt lasted for fully twenty minutes before the dogs went into pianissimo. This is the sign that the fox has outsmarted the pack, cheated the hounds out of a swank luncheon and broken the trail.

But the hounds were in rare form. They got in behind another fox and once again raised their tongues in gorgeous symphony. And the Mayor got in behind, still going strong, but a bit weary from the long chase.

As his mount approached the chicken coop jump, the Mayor's mind strayed for a few seconds,

MAYOR FALLS OFF HORSE AT CHICKEN COOP JUMP

Our picture is one of fox hunting in Moore County. It was found in the archives of The Outlook. It depicts hounds in full cry behind Sir Reynard. It was while engaged in this sport that George D. Campbell, former Mayor of Poughkeepsie, New York, fell off his mount while hunting Thursday with the Moore County Hounds.

20 HEAD OF TROTTERS FROM BIERY STABLES ARRIVE IN PINEHURST

Noted Harness Horses Include Little Pat, Holder of the World Championship for Pacing Gelding, Also Lee Hanover

Twenty head of trotters and pacers owned by the Butler, Pa., sportsman, Homer D. Biery, arrived at the Pinehurst track this morning, to be prepared for their 1940 Grand Circuit campaign. This stable that has wintered here for the past four years, in charge of Trainer Charley Lacey, is the largest privately owned stable seen on the American tracks.

The star of the Biery horses is the well known pacer, Little Pat, 1:58½, which record was taken in a winning race and marks him as the holder of the world's record for a pacing gelding in a race. Little Pat raced sensationally again last year, winning 11 races and pacing to a half-mile track record of 2:01½. Statistics will show that this grand little warrior has won no less than 70 heats better than 2:05, in fact his average figures 2:03½. His many brilliant races cause him to rate high up among the greatest pacers of all time.

Clarise Richardson scored 13 points, Thelma Black 8, Evelyn Martin 2 and in a guard position Bertie Black did valiant service in blocking the rushes of a fast passing Star five.

Pinehurst boys were defeated 38 to 17.

BLAST WRECKS PLANT

REDONDO BEACH, CAL. Feb. 9—(AP)—Explosions so violent that people 20 miles away thought they felt an earthquake shattered a fire-works plant, but by some curious chance no one was killed.

The blast damaged a dozen houses. Police said it was almost incredible that there had been no loss of life.

The Rev. Nettie Denman, 50, occupant of a house 200 feet from the factory, was the most seriously injured.

She was thrown from her bed and suffered deep lacerations of the legs.

LOUIS WINS FIGHT BY DECISION, BUT CROWD BOOS VERDICT

Joe Lewis successfully defended his world heavy weight championship last night in Madison Square Garden. Louis out-pointed his challenger, Arturo Godoy, Chilean boxer, in a fifteen round bout. A crowd of 16,000 fans greeted the decision with a chorus of boos.

The fight was justly won however, though Lewis was hurt more than once by Godoy's crowding, crouching style and hard lefts to the head and body. Surprisingly the champion did not score a knock down against Godoy, a 10 to 1 shot. Louis had been figured to take his opponent in 10 rounds at the most. Louis came on in the last five rounds after being held even for the first 10.

BURT ASKS PINEHURST TO SUPPORT FUND FOR AMBULANCE PURCHASE

Southern Pines Has Raised $600; Mrs. Paul Dana Chairman of Local Campaign in Behalf of French Field Service.

At the close of Thursday night's Forum, Struthers Burt announced that Southern Pines has raised $600 so far in a drive to provide an ambulance for the use of the American Field Service in France. It will be remembered that Capt. Harold Bulkley Willis, a member of the Field Service, which is an independent ambulance corps, made an address before the Forum some time ago; and that Donald Parson of Pinehurst has enlisted in the corps.

A complete ambulance unit costs $2,000, and Mr. Burt urged that Pinehurst make a real effort to raise $1,000 of the amount, and the other half will be provided from Southern Pines. Mrs. Paul Dana is chairman of the Pinehurst committee, but has been ill lately and has not been able to put on an intensive drive, though she is better now and hopes to begin raising the money at once.

Mr. Burt also presented a petition asking Congress vote to supply aid to Finland in fighting Communistic Russia. The petition was circulated among the Forum audience for signatures.

Rupert Team Wins

Rupert Sinclair Station of Fayetteville defeated the Country Club in a five man match at the Amusement Center last night.

The Soviet, these authorities said, is employing the Pacific as the highway for this trade, shipping practically everything from the west coast to Vladivostok. Copper and lead are among the foremost items on the Russian import list.

COL. HAWES SUING EXPRESS COMPANY FOR COLLIE'S DEATH

Prize Dog Valued at $400 Succumbed in Atlanta, Where It Was Shipped for Exhibition in Kennel Shows.

Sunnybank Laird of Kenspur, a magnificent collie dog, died on the afternoon of April 17th, 1939, in Atlanta, Ga. As a result of Sunnybank Laird's untimely death, for he was only 16 months old, a lawsuit, with Col. G. P. Hawes suing the Railway Express Agency, Inc., is due to come up in the near future in the Superior Court at Carthage.

Sunnybank Laird was one of the prize dogs of Col. Hawes' Kenspur Collie Kennels, and scion of an illustrious family tree. He was the grandson of Sunnybank Lady K'Adair, who was brought to Pinehurst in 1932 from Albert Payson Terhune's kennels at Pompton Lake, N. J. His mother was Sunnybank Katrine, and his sister Sunnybank Fairest Elenora. His pedigree listed no fewer than 38 champions.

A tri-color collie, he had been pronounced by a well known judge as being one of the best of the breed in the United States. Only a week or so before the dog's death, Col. Hawes had refused an offer of $400 for the collie.

CIVIC CLUB STYLE SHOW REVEALS CHARM OF LATEST GOWNS

Society Folks Model for Display, With Carl Thompson Master of Ceremonies; Luncheon Precedes and Bridge Follows Event

YOUNG SET AID

By Douglas Doak

Dame fashion brushed out her tresses and put on her Sunday best to provide an eye-filling style show for the Southern Pines Civic Club yesterday afternoon. Carl Thompson gave further proof of his versatility by acting as jovial master of ceremonies for the ladies.

The style show was preceded by an excellent luncheon course, served by Miss Florence Campbell, president of the club. When the dessert course of ice cream and cake had been served to the ladies, seated at card tables placed around the sides of the room, the style show got underway.

The first act was given over to Southern Pines' very young set, modeling clothes from Tot's Toggery. Little Miss Patty Hobbs, a charming brunette, in a dotted swiss Easter dress, quite stole the show with her grace and poise. Young Master Kirky Weeks was Beau Brummel to the last button hole in a white Miami cloth suit and brown linen waist.

In the teen age group Miss Joan Spring displayed a dress suit with natty gray plaid shark-skin jacket and black skirt. Other young models were Richard Tarleton, Billy Overcash, Tommy Golden, Betty Weatherspoon, Ann Stutz, Garland Frank Pierce, Alec McLeod, Roy Temple and Peter Grinnell, Seawell Weeks, Emma Louise Dorn, Alice Ann Allison, Sara Kathryn Hayes, Pauline May Nichols, Betsy Barnum, Marie Porter, Helen Cameron, Jean Williams, Betsy Jean Backer, and Alice Eddy.
