LEADING GOLFERS ARE ENTERED IN FEBRUARY TOURNEY

Event, to be Played Today, This Year is 18 Hole Handicap Medal Play Best Ball of Pair Competition

The 36th annual February golf tournament will be played at the Pinehurst Country Club today. The method of playing this event has been changed this year to a best ball of pair medal play, 18 hole, with handicaps. Last year it was contested at match play. Eleven pairs had entered up to last night, but post entries will be accepted, and players will be awarded starting times at 1:30 p. m. and thereafter. Last year the event was won by Hilles R. Pickens Jr. and Robert E. Harlow. Harlow is entered this year with George Dunlap Jr. James and Bing Hunter, a father and son combination, is a formidable entry. H. F. Lesh and F. C. Robertson, C. B. S. Marr and W. H. B. Ward, E. C. Keating and W. T. McCullough are among the teams the experts declare will be hard to beat.

LOSES CITIZENSHIP

BERLIN, Feb. 12 — (AP) — Fritz Thyssen, German industrialist who was one of Adolf Hitler's early financial backers, today was deprived of his German citizenship. His wife also lost her citizenship through a decree published in the official gazette. Thyssen split with the Nazi regime not long ago and went to Switzerland.

BRAGAW WILL SHOW PLANTATION VIEWS AT FORUM THURSDAY

Beautiful Scenes in Color to Illustrate Talk of Young Horticulturist on Flowers of North Carolina

H. Churchill Bragaw, who will show his color pictures of Orton Plantation in Wilmington, North Carolina, at the Forum on Thursday, February 15, is a native of Washington, N. C., and a graduate of North Carolina State University. Although he is only 26 years of age, he holds the enviable position of being manager of one of the most famous and beautiful of all Southern plantations.

Those who attended the art exhibit at the Pine Needles Inn last week saw many pictures of Carolina flowers, particularly the camellia japonica. Mr. Bragaw shows many of these same rare beauties as they grow at Orton. The Forum this week is sending no notices by mail, but urges that those people in Pinehurst who are flower-conscious—and that includes a majority—add Thursday evening's show to their program for this week.

CHECKER ENTRIES

Checker players are urged to enter the Moore County championship which will be played at the Amusement Center, starting this Thursday. Eighteen have already paid the fifty cent entry fee. Entrees are being taken by Frank Dupont, at Dupont's News Stand.

MEETING TONIGHT

There will be a meeting of the Sandhills Kennel Club at the Carolina Hotel at 8:00 o'clock tonight. All members are requested to attend. The public is also invited.

TIN WHISTLE MEETING

K. B. Trousdell, president, presided at the meeting of Tin Whistle directors yesterday. Ringland Kilpatrick and Stanley D. Fobes were elected to membership.

The following nominating committee was appointed: Warren Bicknell, chairman, H. J. Blue, F. A. Powdrell, J. C. Musser and J. K. Love.

SOUTHERN PINES WINS

Southern Pines defeated the Pinehurst Outlook basketball team 29 to 19 last night in the Pinehurst high gym. Dawson, coach of the Southern Pines high team, scored 11 points for the winners, while Horner led the scoring for the Outlook five with 7 points.

WINNER IN LEAGUE GOLF EVENT

BERT NICOLLS, Pinehurst Country Club professional, who paired with Lloyd Yost yesterday to win the third tournament in the Sandhills amateur-professional golf league, played at The Southern Pines Country Club.

PINEHURST SCOREBOARD

BY O. B. KEELER IN THE ATLANTA JOURNAL
MIAMI BILTMORE CLUB, Coral Gables, Fla.—Louise Suggs, 16-year-old schoolgirl from Lithia Springs, Ga., made such an impression on the golfing populace of this sector, in the Miami Biltmore Women's Invitation, and so many persons have asked me so many questions about the kid, that I think I'll just get some of the answers out of my system right now. Because, for another reason, I think there will be a lot said and written about Louise in golf before she is much older.

COUNT CASSINI WEDS

FREDERICKSBURG, V. a., Feb. 12—(AP)—Count Igor Cassini, 24-year-old Washington newspaper columnist, and Miss Austine Byrne McDonnell, 21, daughter of Austin McDonnell of New York, were married here today. Cassini figured in a case which attracted wide attention last year when he charged that three socially prominent Warrenton men tarred and feathered him.

POLO TEAMS DIVIDE VICTORIES, LAST TILT OF SERIES THURSDAY

Sandhill Takes Sunday Contest 7 to 2, Blind Brook Captures Monday Skirmish 7 to 4; Camden Coming on Weekend

The Blind Brook polo four defeated Sandhills in a fast riding game at No. 3 field yesterday afternoon, to the tune of 7 goals to 4, making it turn-about for the 7-2 win of the Sandhill men on Sunday.

In yesterday's game Fred Wilmshurst of Hasty, N. C., and Red Bank, N. J., Henry Gibson Barnard Jr., U. N. C. star, and Earl Shaw of Chicago carded two goals apiece for the winning team, the other being placed by Coleman Meisner of Port Chester, N. Y. Sandhill goals were scored by Merrill Fink (2), B. R. Brown and R. B. Green.

Yesterday's match was the semi-final of a three-game series which opened Sunday. The final of the series is scheduled for Thursday afternoon. On Saturday and Sunday, Sandhills will play Camden in two games which promise to be outstanding in the season's polo activity.

NELSON WINS PLAYOFF

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 12—National Open Champion Byron Nelson shot his first round of golf out of the 60s in two years of the Texas Open, but his flat 70 was good enough to beat out Ben Hogan by one stroke in the 1940 title playoff at Brackenridge Park today.

The victory gave Nelson the $1500 first prize money and left Hogan with $750 for second.

BELIEVE SHIP SUNK

RIO DE JANEIRO, Feb. 12—(AP)—The German freighter Wakama, laden with oil and other products on a gambling chance of running the British gauntlet to Germany, was believed by shipping circles today to have been sunk or scuttled when she encountered a British warship. The 3,771 ton vessel, which slipped out of Rio harbor last midnight, broadcast an SOS this afternoon, and shortly afterward two rescue ships which raced to the scene reported they found nothing afloat.

WEATHER

Mostly cloudy, slightly colder in extreme west portions Tuesday. Wednesday cloudy and slightly colder.

NICOLLS AND YOST WIN AMATEUR-PRO GOLF TOURNAMENT

Pinehurst Team Turns in Net Score of 64; Ferree and Andrews Second with 65, Nicolls and Hunter Third with 66

Bert Nicolls and Lloyd Yost, representing Pinehurst Country Club, won the third tournament of the Sandhills amateur-professional golf league, held yesterday at Southern Pines Country Club with a net card of 31-33-64.

Purvis Ferree and Karl Andrews, Pinehurst, were second with 33-32-65 and Nicolls and James Hunter were third with 32-34-66.

As the rules provide that a professional can take but one prize, third prize was divided among Harold Callaway, John Capello and Ted Turner, professionals in teams which scored 68.

Yesterday's scores brought the competition for club honors in the complete league series of four tournaments into a three way tie at the end of 54 holes.

Callaway and his partners and Ferree and his partners both representing Pinehurst, and Ted Turner, who, in the first three events has found George Dunlap Jr. his best helper, are the Pine Needles team in the tie.

In the contest for the club honors, a club professional may enter the lowest best ball score accomplished with any one of his three partners.

In the competition for pair honors, Turner and Dunlap are out in front. In this section of the league only amateur-pro combinations which play through the four rounds are eligible.

Nicolls received $21 for finishing first yesterday in the Southern Pines event, and Ferree $12.
