65 DIE AS RESULT OF NORTHEAST STORM

(By Associated Press)

At least sixty-five persons died as a result of a howling northeaster which swept from Maine to the nation's capital, and as far west as Ohio. New England received full force of the storm on Wednesday night. In New England 19 were dead; 21 in New York state; 11 in Pennsylvania, and 14 in New Jersey. Accompanied by a gale which reached 80 miles an hour the snow piled up in gigantic drifts, completely blocking all transportation.

UNIVERSITY ALUMNI TO HEAR DEAN HOUSE AT DINNER TONIGHT

Annual Get-together of Moore County U. N. C. Grads Will Take Place in Carolina Hotel Crystal Room.

The annual Moore County Alumni of University of North Carolina dinner will be held at the Carolina Hotel tonight.

J. Talbot Johnson, chairman of the Moore County group, has announced an interesting program for the one hundred or more members expected to attend.

Dean Robert B. House, one of the outstanding speakers of the State, will be on hand for a short address. The two Moore County alumni of the University staff include Fred H. Weaver of Aberdeen, now assistant dean of students. Dr. E. A. Cameron, another Moore County boy, is also coming down to take part in the program. This group, members of the faculty panel, will be put through a quiz in the fashion of the "man-on-the-street", a radio feature.

The most interesting part of the program will be the motion pictures shown by Coach Wolf of the Tulane University football game, the Pennsylvania game and the Virginia game in colors.

The dinner, to be held in the Crystal Room of the Carolina, will be followed by a dance.

TWO IN POLO SPOTLIGHT

(Outlook Engraving)

HENRY GIBSON BARNHART, University of North Carolina polo star playing with the Sandhills club, is shown astride one of his favorite ponies. He will play against Camden here Sunday. And in the lower picture we have, folks, believe it or not, a goal kicking nag—Little Lance—who is to be featured by Robert Ripley himself in his famous daily strip, for "hoofing" across the winning goal for Camden in a match there against Sandhills on Feb. 4.

PINEHURST SCOREBOARD

by ROBERT E. HARLOW

The Pinehurst Press Bureau and The Pinehurst Outlook have maintained with some vigor that the repeated substitution of Sandhills in connection with events here, in preference to either Pinehurst or Southern Pines, is not sound from the standpoint of advertising and publicity. This position was taken because for many years the names Pinehurst and Southern Pines have been "built up" and are well known by the reading and listening public.

Direct proof of subversion in connection with the identity of an event to be held in this community appeared in a recent issue of the New York World-Telegram. In a column on horses, Tom Reilly writes:

"The big tracks are not alone in offering attractive maiden steeplechase events this season . . . The first meeting of the year, at Sand Hills, March 16, will see etc."

Neither Pinehurst nor Southern Pines gets a call in this article. It is obvious that the writer for the World-Telegram got hold of an announcement of some sort which had Sandhills all over it, to the extent that he got sand in his eyes, and wound up with Sand Hills and no mention whatever of Pinehurst or Southern Pines—and this is Southern Pines' year to be mentioned in steeplechase date-lines.

This week's issue of Editor and Publisher reports that writers, wishing to reach 90 per cent of their readers, should use words which

SANDHILLS CLERGY OPPOSE HOLDING OF SUNRISE SERVICE

Letter to Chambers of Commerce Asks Reconsideration of Proposal; Desire Easter To Be Church Celebration.

SPONSOR WITHDRAWS

There will be no sunrise service in the Sandhills on Easter Sunday morning.

After giving the proposal much thought a number of the clergymen of the community met and drew up a letter to the Pinehurst and Southern Pines Chambers of Commerce, suggesting that these bodies reconsider their action in voting to sponsor the Sunrise service.

Even before this letter had been presented, the members of the Southern Pines Chamber, meeting yesterday, voted to withdraw as sponsors of the service. It is anticipated that the Pinehurst group will be in accord with the suggestion of the clergymen.

Charles Picquet, who suggested the Sunrise service and presented the idea to the two Chambers of Commerce has been ill for a number of days. Reached by telephone he stated that he had already decided that it would be impossible to proceed with the service.

Various locations had been suggested in the event the service
