THRILLING BOUTS TO MARK DEBUT OF BOXING HERE TONIGHT

Newest Sandhill Sport, Sponsored by American Legion, Expected to Draw Overflow Crowd to Amusement Center

Tonight's the night! At 9:15 a gong will ring at Ray Johnson's Pinehurst Amusement Center, ushering in a new Sandhill sport—BOXING. The American Legion is sponsoring the program.

There will be several sizzling preliminary bouts, leading to the top bill, the battle between Ralph Terrell and Ham Braboy, two big negroes who are accustomed to hurl the leather in fast professional fashion.

The action will be well distributed. For instance, Marvin Porter, 179 pounds of rolling muscle and trigger feet, champion of the 600 caddies of the Sandhills, is being challenged by the sprightly 170-lb. Herbert Halton, who is far from being a pushover for the champ. Other local bouts will be between Leland Daniels, Southern Pines and James Arthur of the Pinehurst Race Track, and another cannon-fire scramble is between Ellis McKenzie of the Pinehurst Laundry and Red Houghton, also of the Race Track.

Don't get caught short for a seat! For reserved seats call Pinehurst 3664. Other seats, first come, first served—and they're limited.

FLORIDA GOLF

Frank Strafaci defeated Bobby Dunkelberger, 4 and 3, in a semi-final round of the Dixie amateur golf championship in Miami yesterday. Strafaci defeated Dunkelberger in the final of the 1939 North and South in Pinehurst last April on the home green of a 36 hole match.

In Palm Beach Walter Burkemo defeated Richard Chapman in the final of the South Florida championship, 3 and 2 in 36 holes.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM SCORES 16TH STRAIGHT VICTORY

Pinehurst High School Quint Favorite to Win County Series; Seeded No. 1 in Contests Starting Wednesday.

Pinehurst girls' basketball team made it sixteen straight wins last night by defeating Aberdeen 48 to 23, and will move into the Moore County championship, starting Wednesday in Aberdeen, the favorite, and seeded in the number one position.

The Pinehurst team has had a remarkable season under the coaching of Miss Dorothy Ehrhardt. There will be ten teams in the county championship, representing Pinehurst, Southern Pines, Cameron, West End, Vass-Lakeview, High Falls, Farm Life, Carthage, Aberdeen and Elise.

The first match for Pinehurst in the championship will be on Friday night against the winner of the Southern Pines-Farm Life game. The local girls', being seeded in the number one position, drew a bye in the first round. It is likely that Southern Pines will win from Farm Life, thus making the first Pinehurst contest an all Sandhills affair.

The Pinehurst boys' held the lead in last night's game for a portion of the game, but finally lost 25 to 16.

U. N. C. ORCHESTRA TO PLAY AT HOLLY INN DINNER-DANCE TONIGHT

Band of Skipper Bowles Considered Best Dance Musicians at Chapel Hill; Wheeler is Arranger.

This evening the Holly Inn is offering something different in the way of entertainment by giving a dinner dance from 8 to 12. The music will be furnished by Skipper Bowles and his University of North Carolina Orchestra.

While the Skipper Bowles outfit is comparatively new, it has already acquired the reputation of being the best dance orchestra at Chapel Hill. The band has played successful engagements in all the major cities throughout the state. Its leader, Skipper Bowles, boasts that their arranger, Hubert Wheeler, is one of the best arrangers and pianists in the country. In fact, Mr. Wheeler recently received a very tempting offer to play for the famous Jan Savitt and his Top Hatters.

Besides Mr. Wheeler the orchestra has three or four professional musicians from Durham and Raleigh. Among these musicians is Jimmie Fuller, whose orchestra was so popular a few years back, and who still is considered one of the best trumpet and sax players in the state.

In addition, the orchestra offers one of the best drummers in these parts in Tiny Hutton (weight 267). All in all, the orchestra is well prepared to live up to its slogan "The best in Sweet and Swing."

Affair Planned to Aid Woman's Exchange Proves Very Enjoyable, Many Winning Cash Prizes; Keynoters Provide Music.

The Carolina Hotel lobby took on aspects of Grand Hotel last night, with a capacity crowd in attendance at the benefit keno party of the Sandhills Woman's Exchange. The inanimate and gay-costumed Aunt Dinah forsook her customary post at the Log Cabin Exchange for the hotel entrance, to receive guests.

The keno play was on such a scale that the Outlook reporter found it impossible to get the many winners. Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick of New York, an absentee participant, held the lucky ticket for the fancy kodak camera.

Another sweet charity item was the sale of candies by the beautiful ladies of the sweets committee, including Miss Mary Ward, chairman of the bon-bon lassies; the Misses Anne and Carol Hotchkiss, Miss Eleanor Sanford and Mrs. John O. Hobson.

Added merriment were the scintillating tunes of the seven-piece Keynoters Orchestra.

Numbers were called by Elliot Barta and echoed by Frank White of the hotel staff. Robust Corbett Alexander drew the lucky number for the camera and Miss Ward turned the bird-cage.

COLORFUL HORSE SHOW ATTRACTS BRILLIANT SOCIALITE THROG

Little Squire Wins Open Jumping Sweepstake, and Finds Great Favor With Crowd; Splendid Contests in All Events.

MANY AT LUNCHEON

By A Staff Correspondent

SOUTHERN PINES, Feb. 23.—The sun came out today to smile on the colorful spectacle of a classy field of jumpers, hunters, show horses and expert riders, as they performed in 14 classes for the pleasure of an enthusiastic crowd in the first annual Southern Pines horse show, held in the ring and over the difficult courses at the Country Club.

A number of the finest jumpers in America provided keen competition and excellent entertainment as horse after horse came into the ring under expert handling and made faultless jumps over the various barriers. The tooting of automobile horns and the cheers of the crowd were the reward for the perfect precision of the jumpers.

It took a really good horse to win in any class in this show, which got off to a glorious start and will surely become a permanent and brilliant fixture in the sporting events of Southern Pines and this mid-South resort community.

Little Squire Pleases

As predicted, the great champion, Little Squire, only 13.2 hands high, and snow white, owned by Mrs. William J. Kennedy, Dedham, Mass., was the outstanding horse in the show. His stable mate, Erin's Son, was a close second in the day's jumping. Both were ridden by Mickey Walsh.

Lady Durham, the fine jumper of Mrs. W. O. Moss of the Mile-away stables, Southern Pines, also was up to expectations and gave Little Squire a grand tussle for honors in the class for open jumping. The judges called Little Squire and Lady Durham into the ring for a jump off, after each had given superlative performances in this class. In the jump off Lady Durham failed to take the first jump, throwing her rider, Johnny Moss, and Little Squire won the event by clearing the bar.

It was a great day for the horsey folks. Beauteous ladies, army riders from Fort Bragg, the finest horsemen of the community, and children, came into the ring on their favorite mounts to delight the crowds.

Luncheon Served

The show started in the morning and lasted until sundown. At noon, luncheon was served in the Country Club, and a gay throng filled the dining room. The riding attire of the competitors added to the scene. Standing in the lobby of the club after luncheon it was interesting to watch the gentlemen as they called for their bowler hats to return to the ring. One gentleman, upon being presented with his bowler, said in the most approved style: "Than 'kyew."
