FIGHTING FUNDS FOR FINLAND CAMPAIGN REPORTED LAGGING

The campaign of Fighting Funds for Finland Inc., is lagging in Pinehurst, according to officials who have been appointed by George Watts Hill, Durham, state chairman for North Carolina.

W. H. Watt, Pinehurst chairman, says that no solicitation is being made, all contributions being voluntary, and given by people who are eager to support Finland's fighting forces in the struggle against Russia.

Struthers Burt is the Southern Pines chairman for this fund, and has already sent $800 to state Chairman Hill. All workers for this fund are giving their services.

Major General John F. O'Ryan, World war commander of 27th division and former New York police commissioner, announced before accepting the national chairmanship of the organization that he had held two conferences with Mr. Hoover, chairman of the Finnish Relief Fund Inc. The Hoover organization does not raise money for fighting.

FLOODS IN CALIFORNIA THREATEN DISASTER

(By Associated Press)

Waterways, turned into torrents by cloudbursts and melting snow, drove over 3,000 persons from their homes yesterday in California cities. Flood conditions equaling the 1937 catastrophe were predicted by weather bureaus.

The Sacramento valley situation is particularly grave, with weather bureau officials advising "vigilance in patrolling the levees. At Nata, 35 miles north of San Francisco, over five hundred persons were rescued by boats, as the Nata River overflowed its banks and continued to rise.

BEARS BREAK LOOSE

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Feb. 27.—(AP)—Two 400-pound Russian bears escaped from their trainer today, injured one man and sent shopping crowds scurrying for safety in downtown Wilkes-Barre before being recaptured by police.

Police identified the injured man as Jack Phillips, 19, who was unloading a truck in an alley when one of the bears knocked him over in a dash for freedom. Phillips was bruised and cut.

Another onlooker, a gas station employee, was bowled over but unharmed.

The bears broke loose while being exercised by their keeper, Stanley Beebe of New York City, behind a theatre where they were to be exhibited.

When fire destroyed the Hopkins house

Miss Hopkins was alone and didn't dare desert the place to reach a telephone. So after she had toted out Her goldfish and a fern, She climbed up in the apple tree and watched the darn thing burn.

NOTE: The nearest neighbor, who was away when the fire started, thought Miss Hopkins was silly sitting in the apple tree, but she wasn't. She was only philosophical. Without a telephone there was no possible way to do anything about stopping the fire.
