BRIG-GEN. SCRIVEN, HERO IN BOXER RISING, DIES OF ILLNESS

Brig. Gen. George Percival Scriven, 86, of Washington, D. C., died in Southern Pines early yesterday morning. He had been in ill health since coming to Southern Pines six weeks ago.

Born in Philadelphia February 21, 1854, son of Charles Henry and Elizabeth Scriven, General Scriven had an eventful and colorful career.

Following his graduation from West Point in 1878 he served at various posts until 1894 when he became military attache at Mexico City. Long service in China and the Philippines was rewarded when he was cited for "gallantry in action" against Chinese Boxer forces at Yang-Tsun, and again at Peking. In 1917 he was designated as military attache to the American Embassy at Rome, and later detailed and served with Italian troops in the Balkans, where he was awarded the decoration, Grand Officer Crown of Italy.

General Scriven is survived by his wife, Elizabeth McGabe Scriven, and daughter, Helen Scriven of Washington, D. C.

The body was shipped to West Point last night where full military rites will be accorded the dead veteran.

EDITOR-PREACHER IS SPEAKER

REV. J. A. McMILLAN, managing editor of "Charity and Children," and pastor of the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville. Mr. McMillan spoke to the Kiwanis Club in the Highland Pines Inn Wednesday of the need for individuals to praise each other's work.

Miss Chapman's Pupils Show Pinocchio Drawings

On the last day of the Pinocchio originals exhibit, which terminated its three day visit last night, the pupils of Miss Chapman's School added their drawings of Pinocchio to the Disney exhibit. That there is much artistic talent in the school was evidenced by the exclamations of many onlookers. The pupils, who were staunch and full-time (except for school) veterans of the exhibit, were charging one dollar each for their works in order to raise funds to purchase one of the originals for their school.

The pupils contributing were Sally Gifford, John Hemmer, Graham Johnston, Joan Johnston and Evelyn Maddox.

Of much interest to the visitors was the picture presented to Lily Pons from Walt Disney at the opening of the exhibit in Florida.

BETTY JAMESON LOSES TO MRS. FREDA NOLAN

ST. AUGUSTINE, March 7.—(P)—Mrs. Freda Nolan, Pittsburgh, did the unexpected today—she beat National Champion Betty Jameson, 4 and 3, in the second round of the annual Florida East Coast women's golf tournament. Miss Jameson won the qualifying medal with a 74, while Miss Nolan just made the top flight with an 82.

Tomorrow Mrs. Nolan will play Elizabeth Hicks in one semi-final while Patty Berg will meet Clara Callender in the lower bracket.

EDITOR PREACHER

Rev. J. A. McMillan is conducting special services at the First Baptist Church, Southern Pines, this week, beginning each evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. McMillan is editor-in-chief of "Charity and Children," a publication of the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville.

Railway mail clerks in 1939 handled more than 16 billion pieces of postal matter, an increase of 1.13 per cent over 1938.

America's farm population in 1939 was 32,059,000 compared to a total of 32,077,000 in 1910.

Footlighters Club Wins Drama Contest

The Footlighters Club of the Lexington High School won the drama competition which was held in Southern Pines High School auditorium last night as a unit of the state-wide Little Theatre contests being held. The Footlighters presented a one-act play called "Echo." Southern Pines won second place with "The Terrible Meek."

HOSPITAL

Mrs. Preston T. Kelsey, giving a report for the equipment committee, said that the pneumonia mask which was ordered last month had been received. The mask will be a great aid to pneumonia patients, and is an item which has been needed by the professional staff for a long time. Among items listed on Mrs. Kelsey's expenditure list which were approved were a number of reference books and a medical dictionary for the student nurses' library.

Mrs. Burt Hunt, chairman of the ball committee, gave a very encouraging report on plans for the Hospital Ball, which is to be held at the Pinehurst Country Club next Friday evening, March the fifteenth. Invitations to the ball were issued to a large number in the county last week and a record crowd is expected. An excellent orchestra, Sidney's of Washington, has been engaged to furnish music for the affair, which is always the highlight of the spring social activities and a much-heralded event. Dancing will begin at 9:30 in the ballroom of the club, and during intermission sandwiches and coffee will be served from a buffet table. Tickets are $3 a person.

On the evening's program will be the awarding of a Plymouth four-door sedan, double silver fox scarfs and several smaller items, including a miniature radio, an electric iron and other gifts donated by several shops. Mrs. Frank W. McCluer Jr., head of the car committee, and Mrs. Paul Butler and Mrs. Clarence Edson, in charge of the fox scarfs, all report a good sale of tickets.
