PROBLEM FOR ALLIES

Great Britain and France found themselves faced with new problems yesterday in the war on the western front with the introduction of a possible Finnish-Russian peace into the scene. With the possibility that the 300 German divisions now massed on the western front may be supplied with wheat and oil by Russia, now that the Soviet resources and transportation will probably soon be free of the strain of the war with Finland, French and English generals turned renewed efforts to campaign plans.

TROTTERS AND PACERS AT PINEHURST TRACK NOW NUMBER 146

Two Additions to the Stable of Herman Tyson Belong to Joe Frazer of Chester, S. C.; Fast Workouts Continue.

By Wayne Groves

With the arrival of two more horses at the Pinehurst race track, there are now 146 trotters and pacers getting their daily work over the local oval. Both of last week's additions went into the stable of Herman Tyson, making ten head that Tyson is schooling. They are both the property of Joe Frazer of Chester, S. C., one being the double gaited performer, My Birthday, 2:11 (p, 2:07), that will be trained on the trot, and a tried pacer, called Bobby Nixon, a son of Hollyrood Bob 2:04 1/2, the sire of Little Pat 1:58 3-4.

What we think is probably the fastest mile worked by a two year old this season, was seen at the Pinehurst track last week, when Delvin Miller worked Black Bonny a heat in 2:23, last half in 1:11, last quarter in :34 and the final eighth in :16 1/4. This colt has shown several exceptional performances in the past ten days. He was set down for a final eighth in just :15, and on another occasion when asked for a good last half, covered that distance in 1:07 1/4, last quarter in :32 1/4, last furlong in :16 1-4.

By reason of the extreme speed he has shown, and his perfect manners, Black Bonny has been a much talked of colt, and on Saturday afternoon, he was sold by owner Miller to R. Horace Johnston of Charlotte, N. C., and will join the stable of eight that Mr. Johnston has in training at the Pinehurst track, in the capable hands of Lee Smith.

The first mile better than 2:30 seen by a trotter here this season, goes to the credit of the two year old colt, Butch, a member of the Mahlon N. Haines stable that is trained by Delvin Miller. This big colt stepped a mile in 2:28 3-4, last quarter in :33 1-4, closing eighth in :15 3-4.

Some especially nice works in the H. M. Parshall stable were: Perpetual, 2, by Protector 1:59 1/4, in 2:32, half in :12 1/2, last quarter in 34 1/4, final eighth in :16 1/4; Lord Faunteroy, 2, 2 by Lord Jim 2:00 1/4, owned by John F. Davis of Toledo, O., in 2:33, last quarter in :37, last eighth in pounds, are the fastest dogs in the world for their size. The result of breeding a terrier with a greyhound gave us the first specimen of whippet, which looked much more like a terrier than the greyhound, but the modern whippet looks exactly like a miniature greyhound. There is perhaps no breed from the standpoint of disposition more suited for a house pet, and still can be used as a sporting dog.

Upon arrival in America the whippets were taken over by wealthy men and women, who used them as race dogs over a straight away course. These races were not at all interesting to the general public, and it has just been in recent years that the whippet has begun to take his place among the other ranking breeds in America.

The whippet revival started in Baltimore, Md., and that city now boasts of a whippet colony of about three hundred dogs, and two circular tracks. Meander Kennels at Locust Dale, Va., has produced the very best show and race dogs in the country, while Cleveland, Ohio, and California are other breeding centers.

Success of this breed was due to the circular track where whippets chased the mechanical rabbit around at topmost speed under giant floodlights, while filled stands of cheering people backed their choices through mutuels and book makers.

While a greyhound is faster than the average whippet over a distance of ground, these little fellows make up what they lack in speed and size with their never ending courage, and the result is generally very close finishes in most whippet races.

:17; Land Bird, 2, by Scotland 1:59 1/4, the property of the Millbrook Stable, trotted in 2:35 1/4, last quarter in :36 1/4 and the final eighth in :16 1/4.
