STUDENTS TAKE PART IN SECOND CATTLE JUDGING CONTEST

The second of a series of Ayrshire cattle judging contests by vocational and agricultural students of Moore and surrounding counties was held at the Pinehurst Dairy yesterday.

Hoke County students judged yesterday, with 19 young men participating. Clarence Willis of Raeford won first judging prize of $3. and a rosette. June Wright of Raeford was second for the $2. prize and William Adcox, third, received a one-dollar prize.

A number of spectators enjoyed the contest, with not one among them successful in placing the group of cows correctly.

Next Thursday, March 28, the cattle will be judged by students from Lee, Harnett and Cumberland Counties.

George Jessel, 40; His Fiancee Aged 15

NEW YORK, March 22.—(AP)—The engagement of George Jessel, 40-year-old comedian, to Lois Andrews, 15, Broadway showgirl, was at the stage today where "it all depends on mother."

Mrs. Geraldine Andrews, mother of the beautiful Lois—who once socked Producer George White in the eye backstage at the Scandals—arrived by plane from the west coast. Said Lois: "I am going to have a long talk with my mother about the marriage. I love Mr. Jessel very much."

Jessel is the former husband of Norma Talmadge.

Jacobs said Conn had suffered another outbreak of boils and would be unable to appear in a ring for several months.

INCIDENT CLOSED

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Secretary Hull indicated at his press conference today that his reprimand of Minister James H. R. Cromwell for making a pro-ally and anti-German speech in Canada closed the matter—unless Cromwell does it again.

Should the millionaire diplomat of two months' service repeat the offense, it was made apparent, disciplinary measures of a severe type will follow.

Hull said he had not heard from Cromwell following the reprimand, and had no appointment with him.

PINEHURST SCOREBOARD

One that struck our fancy was by Ray Howe of the Charlotte News. He wrote:

"Big Ben Hogan has been waiting a long time to strike but when he finally sounded the alarm he woke up everybody in American golfdom with the resonance of the sweet sound of rounds he played in winning the North and South open with a record score of 277."

Not bad.

Bill Richardson wrote this lead for the New York Times:

"The fates that control the destinies of golfers finally smiled on deserving Ben Hogan who today annexed the North and South open, one of the game's oldest and most esteemed fixtures, with a record of 277."

Jack Tucker, Rochester Democrat and Chronicle:

"His heart stout as the nearest oaken door, little Benny Hogan stood off the jittery challenge of a crucial third round, fired a great closing 70 at the field, and won the annual North and South open with the record total of 277."

Bill Boni, staff writer for The Associated Press:

"Ben Hogan, the lad who's been second in almost everything but never had been first, proved he has the quality that makes champions today when he won the 38th annual North and South open golf championship with a record score of 277."

Walter Logan, staff writer for The United Press:

"Ben Hogan, the sharp shooting Texan who had been giving par 72 fits, won the North and South open championship—his first major win—with an 11 under par 277."

Lester Rice, New York Journal-American:

"Knowing just what he had to do as he put the holes behind him, one by one, Ben Hogan did it like the true North and South open champion which he had virtually made himself even before the culminating round was started. Hogan won his first big championship the hard way."

Bill Anderson, Raleigh News and Observer:

"Ben Hogan of White Plains, N. Y., 140 pounds of championship fiber today realized an eighty-year-old dream which hard work and more hard work destined to be true. The likeable Hogan's dream was to win one of the five major medal play tournaments of the P. G. A. schedule. And that dream came true today, just as it always does in the story books and in the movies."

Arch Murray, New York Post:

There's no telling how far Ben Hogan will go now. Certainly, he'll take a lot of flagging. That was the consensus of opinion in local locker rooms today as Ben Hogan headed on to Greensboro with the golfing caravan with his first golfing championship in tow."

AMERICAN SHIPPERS INTERESTED IN NEW SEA WARFARE MOVE

NEW YORK, March 22.—The destruction of six Danish freighters within 48 hours, led New York shippers to express belief tonight that Germany had entered a new phase of sea warfare, an attempt to divert rich Danish food supplies from England to Germany. American shippers became interested in the new development, when a Danish ship was sunk by a torpedo while carrying a heavy load of American grain from Philadelphia to Denmark.

REPORT RUSSIAN PRIME MINISTER TO ARRIVE IN BERLIN

(By the Associated Press)
Reuters, the British News Agency, early today distributed a report credited to the Rome radio, to the effect that the Russian Prime Minister Molotov, would arrive in Berlin today. This report said Molotov would be accompanied by numerous diplomatic and military advisers and would remain in Berlin two days. A report from Berlin, however, said that no information had been received there about the reported visit of the Russian minister.
