

Strafaci to Try for 3rd North and South Title

Defending Champion, Here for Amateur Event, Says He Expects to Do Well in Tournament

Flatbush Boy Shot Seven Rounds Under 70 in Florida Tilts During Winter; Bobby Dunkelberger Among Leading Contenders.

BIG COLLEGE ENTRY

By JACK TUCKER
Golf Editor, Democrat-Chronicle, Rochester, N. Y.

With three weeks of campaigning in the Florida grapefruit belt behind him, small Frankie Strafaci of the bushy locks and low-flying shots appears as good a bet as any to win the annual North and South amateur championship, which opens Monday over Pinehurst's No. 2 course.

If Mrs. Strafaci's little kid can turn this trick it will be his third consecutive victory here—a record.

Small Frank was out batting the agate around yesterday . . . and having trouble. But Strafaci is a boy who doesn't burn himself out in practice rounds. "I played seven rounds of 69 or better on Florida courses this winter," he said. "As I am rapidly becoming an old man a quarter of a century old, this kind of golf warms my creaking bones. In other words, I would say I am playing well, and expect to do all right in this tournament."

Francis from Flatbush has increased his weight slightly to 145 pounds and is hitting the apple further. He won the recent Dixie Amateur.

ADDED INTEREST TO NORTH AND SOUTH

Outlook Engraving

Jeanne Cline, 16, Bloomington, Ill., Miss Agnes Williams, 17, Newark, N. Y., and Georgia Tainter, Fargo, North Dakota, 17. Some day one of these three misses is going to win the North and South. Perhaps each one will have her turn. These young ladies have all been eliminated by more experienced competitors, but they say they will be back, and as their parents agree, Pinehurst hopes to entertain them often.

RAMBLERS TO PLAY PINEHURST IN POLO SKIRMISH SUNDAY

Yellows Win 4-3 Over Blues in Game Yesterday in Which Swoope Takes Spill, But Continues to Play; Two New Riders in Lineup.

A large crowd of spectators is expected at the Pinehurst vs Ramblers polo game which will be held on the home field Sunday afternoon. This match was scheduled for last Sunday, but was called off because of the weather.

The Yellows defeated the Blues 4-3 in yesterday's game. After the score stood at 4-0 in favor of the Yellows at the end of the first half, the Blues went in fighting to run up three goals in the final three periods, checking each Yellow thrust for a goal during that second half. Charles Swoope, playing No. 1 for the Yellows took a spill in the fifth period, which knocked the wind out of him. When he came to, he mounted his pony and played for the remainder of the game.

Jim Murray of New York, a guest at The Carolina who plays with the Fort Hamilton polo team, and Mickey Walsh, trainer at the W. J. Kennedy Stable and rider of Little Squire, the pony wonder jumper, performed exceptionally well. Murray played No. 2 and Walsh No. 4 for the Yellows.

Goals for the Yellows were scored by Merrill Fink, Walsh, Swoope and Murray, while Arthur McCashin carded two and R. B. Green one for the blues. B. R. Brown and Coleman Miesner completed the Blue foursome.

LADIES KNEW ALL ANSWERS AT FORUM KNOWLEDGE QUIZ

Information, Please, Night Provides Much Enjoyment for Feminine Intellectuals; Experts, Do Fine Job of Answers.

The ladies knew all the answers; they always do.

They took over the Information, Please night at the Pinehurst Forum and finished a good second to an encyclopedia.

One of the questions the ladies could not answer was how to improve the sound equipment in the Country Club lobby. Eight-year-old Jerry Cline answered this one when he put on a stamper in the rear of the hall and had to be sent to bed.

Mrs. G. Edward Horne of the Holly Inn was inquisitor. She saw to it that the experts had first opportunity at the questions.

The ladies on the stand were Mrs. Daniel M. Pinkham and Mrs. Walter D. Hyatt of Pinehurst and Mrs. Frank W. McCluer Jr. and Miss Florence Campbell of Southern Pines.

The questions were difficult, and these ladies did a noble job by providing most of the correct answers. The audience waited its turn and filled in. There were only two misses.

No one could answer a question proposed by Mrs. H. G. Chatfield.

Question: There are three books on a shelf. Each book is 2 inches thick and has 200 pages; each cover of the three books is 1-4 inch thick. A book worm eats from page 1 to page 600. How far does he travel.

MIGRATORS WARNED

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(AP)In grim terms of suffering and want the Farm Security Administration warned thousands of midwestern farm families today against migrating to the Pacific coast in search of economic opportunity.

WEATHER

Mostly cloudy Friday, probably scattered showers. Warmer Saturday.

Chapel Hill Star Out in 33 Strokes and Back in 35; Gives Her Third Round Under 70 in Pinehurst Classic; Jeanne Cline and Georgia Tainter Lose.

VERRY, KIRBY, BAUER WIN

Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page came into the Country Club yesterday and it was easy to tell by the gleam in her eye, and that tenseness athletes work up when they have been making a grand effort, that she had played another remarkable round of golf in Pinehurst.

It was a 33-35-68. There was a conceded putt at one hole which Mrs. Page missed after her opponent, Mrs. Thomas E. Nolan had given up the hole. Golfers, no matter how well they are playing, do not like to take time to concentrate on a putt, when a hole has been given them.

But by giving Mrs. Page the worst of it, she was 33-36-69 over the reconstructed number one course, and she looked like a great golfer and great athlete every step of the distance.

That's one thing about Mrs. Page. She was practically raised on the coaches' bench at the University of North Carolina and she must have absorbed a tremendous amount of competitive spirit. When she gets in the mood Mrs. Page is the girl that song writer was thinking about when he wrote that number about "Dying for dear old Rutgers."

It was the third time Mrs. Page has broken seventy while playing in the North and South. She won the qualifying round with a 69 in 1938 and last year in a match, played the by-holes for a 68. These rounds were played over number three.

This great score was carded yesterday afternoon in the sec-

HOGAN SETS RECORD WINNING GREENSBORO OPEN BY 9 STROKES

(Special to Outlook)

GREENSBORO, March 28.—Ben Hogan was only warming up in Pinehurst.

He showed the boys he was ready for a 1940 killing today when he added the Greensboro open to his North and South victory by winning the snow-bound event with four startling rounds of 69-68-66-67-270 to win by nine strokes from a fast field. He won $1,200.

In Pinehurst Hogan was 66-67-74-70-277. He won $1,000. Both his Pinehurst and Greensboro totals were new records. He played the eight rounds in 547 strokes for an average of 68 strokes per round.

Hogan completed the coup in eight days, winning $2,200. If snow had not caused a delay he (Continued on page two)
