

P. S. P. RANDOLPH KIN APPOINTED MINISTER IN BRITISH CABINET

Robert Spear Hudson, son-in-law of recently deceased Sportsman of Pinehurst, Selected for Post in Big Shakeup

CHURCHILL NAMED

Robert Spear Hudson, son-in-law of the late P. S. P. Randolph of Pinehurst, was made minister of shipping yesterday in a drastic shakeup of Britain's war cabinet, in which Winston Churchill became director of the national arms services when he was named as chairman of a committee of service ministers.

Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, will now guide the war and air ministry as well as the supply ministry.

Mr. Hudson was formerly secretary of the board of overseas trade. His new post as minister of shipping was made vacant by the death Saturday of Sir John Gilmour. Mr. Hudson accompanied King George and Queen Mary to America last spring.

Lord Chatfield, minister for coordination of defense resigned, and no new minister was named for that post. Sir Samuel Hoare, hitherto lord privy seal, became air minister in an exchange of posts with Sir Kingsley Wood. Lord Woolton became minister of food, succeeding W. S. Morrison.

There were many minor changes. No explanation of the shakeup was given in the government communique. It said merely that "the King has been pleased to approve the following appointments."

DUNKELBERGER AND TWO ALEXANDERS WIN NORTH-SOUTH MATCHES

North Carolina Golfers Advance to Quarter Final; Cozart Loses to Jack Ryerson, 5 and 4; Knowles Ousted by Hunter.

'GEORGE DUNLAP VICTOR

North Carolina's delegation is doing nicely in the 40th annual North and South amateur golf championship, having advanced three players to the quarter final as a result of yesterday's second round matches over the championship course.

These men are Skip and Chuck Alexander of Duke University and Durham and Bobby Dunkelberger, the Southern champion, from High Point.

When veteran Paul Hyde of Buffalo walked into the clubhouse after having lost to Skip Alexander, 5 and 4, he said:

"These Southern lads are too tough for us Yankees. On the long fifth I hit two wooden club shots and was twenty-five yards short of the green. Skip was home with a drive and an iron." Bill Cozart, Durham, who Tuesday eliminated champion Frank Strafacci, was beaten by John B. Ryerson of Coopers town, N. Y., a good journeyman golfer, who plays competitions, winter and summer, from coast to coast. Jack won by 5 and 4. He had seven one putt greens.

The youthful Grover Poole Jr., Duke freshman, was lined up against Chuck Alexander, Duke sophomore. Chuck took an early lead of three holes, saw it cut down to one, but regained it to win 2 and 1 and put the "frosch" in his proper place. George T. Dunlap Jr., Pinehurst favorite, making a serious effort to regain a title he once monopolized, was too strong for (Continued on page two)
