

Senate Vote Is Win For Roosevelt Over Garner

Chamber Passes Trade Agreement Program, Rejecting One Year Limitation Backed by Vice-President

Action Sends Key Administration Legislation to White House, as House Had Approved Measure.

BITTER DEBATE

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.—The senate by a vote of 42 to 37 passed a trade agreement program today, thereby giving President Roosevelt a major victory over Vice-President Garner, who had tried to limit the trade agreement to one year.

The senate action sent the key administration legislation to the White House, the house having previously approved an identical measure.

Besides being a triumph for the President in what had been heralded as perhaps this session's biggest test, these results also elated Secretary Hull, because the program of reducing tariffs and other trade barriers is the corner stone of his foreign policy.

The limitation, put forward as an amendment to legislation continuing the trade program for three years from June 12, was rejected after bitter debate studded with references to the political significance of the program as an issue in this year's Presidential election campaigns. President Roosevelt had expressed his opposition to the one-year restriction at his morning press talk after it was reported on excellent authority that Vice-President Garner was supporting the proposal.

NO KIDDIN'!

Roll this one around your fork and get it over the chin. A party of five was in Augusta, Ga., yesterday. Breakfast in Pinehurst, lunch in Augusta and a spaghetti feed at Montesanti's Spaghetti Camp about two miles out of Pinehurst, early last night.

The group, composed of Mr. and Mrs. James Breuil of Buffalo, N. Y., guests at The Carolina, Bill Eddy, Frank Strafacci and Pat Mucci, left Pinehurst yesterday morning in Breuil's super super airplane.

After the group watched some of the Masters' golf and had lunch in Augusta, Frankie and Pat, true to the gustatory tradition of Sunny Italy, said to their hosts, "We'll have spaghetti at Signor Montesanti's tonight." They did. Also, some of that fine Italian wine.

36 HOLES TODAY

George T. Dunlap Jr. and Jack Ryerson will play for the 40th North and South amateur championship over 36 holes of the long course today. Dunlap is the favorite, although Ryerson has been playing the most consistent golf of any player in this tournament.

Mr. Dunlap won a 21 hole match yesterday from Southern Champion Bobby Dunkelberger. Mr. Ryerson defeated Skip Alexander, Duke University, two up, in the other match.

Dunlap-Dunkelberger
Mr. Dunlap lost the first two holes. His play indicated that he was going to have some difficulty in getting organized, but at the third he knocked his second shot close enough for a three and won. He was one down at the ninth.

They halved the long tenth in well played fives, and Bobby went two up at 11, when he dropped a 15-foot putt for a three. George won the 12th with a par four, Bobby having bunkered his second.

George ran into misfortune at the 13th. He drove into the rough and found his ball in a mole hole. Entitled to a free lift, he dropped his ball on the insecure pine needles and twigs and while in his back swing the ball moved. He immediately called a stroke on himself and had to be satisfied with a half in five.

The Pinehurst Tin Whistler was missing the greens at this stage. His second to the 14th

A good game is in the offing, in view of the fact that Bragg, its team strengthened by recent practice and tuning up of the line-up, suffered a 5-3 setback from Pinehurst on the home field several weeks ago.
