

Dunlap topples Ryerson For Sixth Win of Title

Former National Amateur Champion Has Easy Time, Taking 7-6 Victory in North-South

Lengthening Out of Tees Troubled Cooperstown Player, Who Was 4 Down at End of Morning Round With 83 to Foe's 78.

MATCH EVEN AT 9TH

By Robert E. Harlow

George T. Dunlap Jr. recaptured the North and South amateur golf title yesterday when he defeated Jack Ryerson, Cooperstown, N. Y., 7 and 6, in a 36-hole final over the championship course of the Pinehurst Country Club. It was the sixth time Mr. Dunlap has won this title.

The final match was listless. There were no exciting incidents such as prevailed in Mr. Dunlap's quarter final against Chuck Alexander and in his semi-final against Bobby Dunkelberger. These games went into extra holes with the result dangling on every stroke.

Mr. Ryerson is a very fine golfer, but he is not quite up to the standard of play which has made Mr. Dunlap one of the outstanding amateurs of the world, and which carried him to a national championship and six North and South titles.

During the week Mr. Ryerson had been playing some of the finest golf of his career, and

(Continued on Page Five)

ME. TO FLA.—AND BACK

Gene Buzzell's in town. Gene is sports ed. of the Palm Beach Daily News. A bachelor, he has it arranged so that he doesn't have to stay home much. Between May and October, he travels around New England writing publicity and managing gubernatorial candidates. November rolls around and it's time to go back to the Palm Beach sports desk.

STODDARD-MARSHALL TEAM WINS WHISTLE BESTBALL TOURNEY

Worcester Golfer Registers Lowest Round of His Links Career, 89 Gross; Pair Net 58; Donald Ross Cards 69.

H. G. Stoddard, Worcester, Mass., and H. N. Marshall, Boston, won the bestball of pair, medal play handicap event of the Tin Whistle Club yesterday over number one course with a net card of 26-32-58. There were 74 players.

Mr. Stoddard played one of the lowest rounds of his golfing experiences. He scored a gross 44-45-89. Mr. Marshall was 40-47-87. They teamed well, Marshall winning six holes and Mr. Stoddard four.

Their bestball net score:

Out 333 341 423-26
In 434 443 343-32-58

The ace at the sixth hole was contributed by Mr. Stoddard. He obtained a gross two, and with a handicap stroke produced a one for his team.

Donald J. Ross, playing with Henry Hornblower, took this occasion to produce one of his lowest rounds of the season, a 34-35-69. It might have been a 68, for Mr. Ross took three from the edge of the 17th, after hitting two fine wooden club strokes. His card:

Out 454 433 353-34
In 454 434 254-35-69

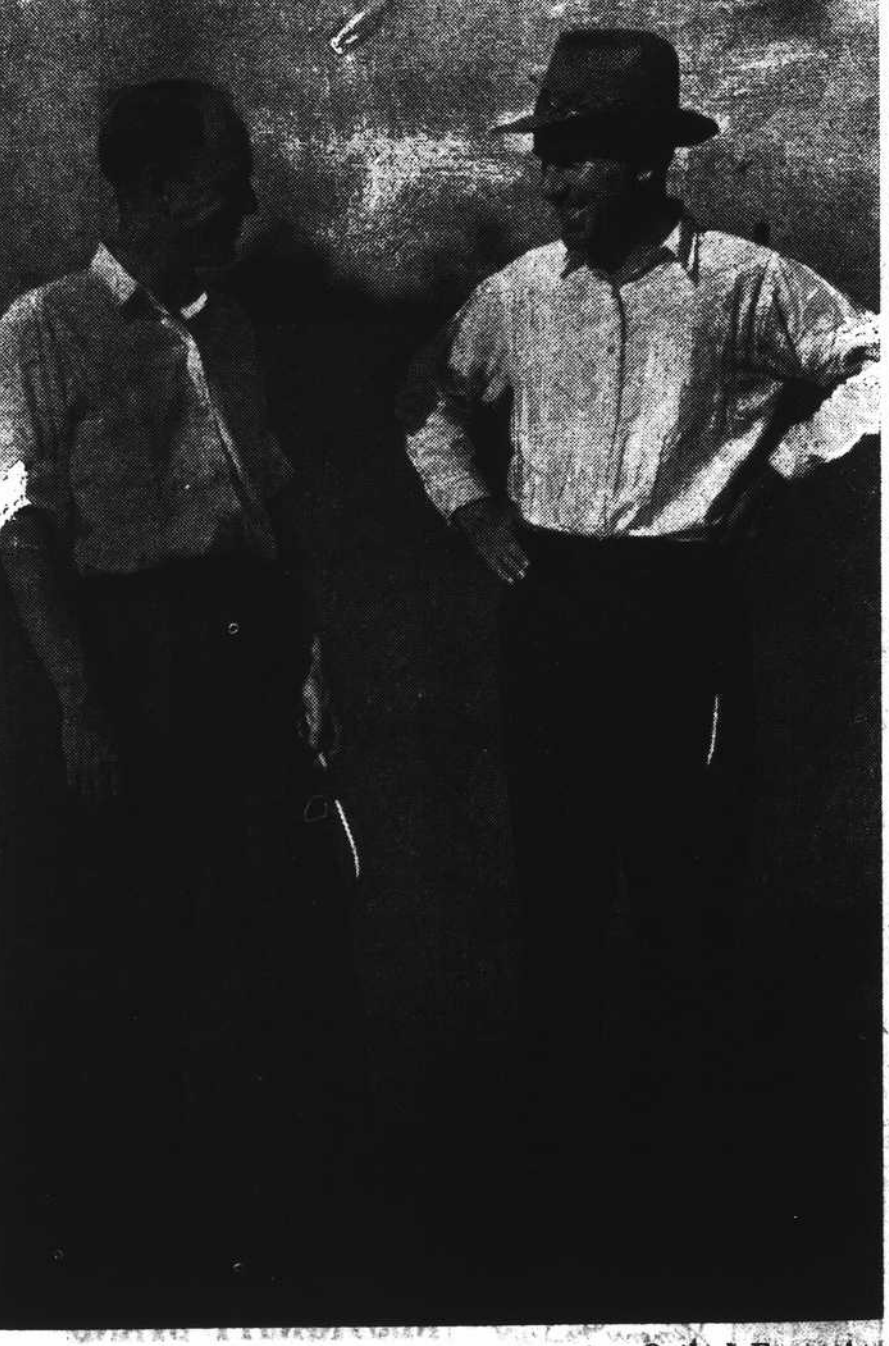

(Continued on Page Six)

JEAN BAUER WINS

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 6. —(P)—Pretty Jean Bauer of Providence, R. I., added another trophy to her collection today by defeating defending Champion Jane Cothran of Greenville, S. C., 3 and 2, in the finals of the Charlotte Country Club's fourth annual women's invitation tournament.

Miss Cothran herself started brilliantly in the 18-hole match, but the new champion had her long game grooved and was straight to the pin over most of the route.

WINS TOURNEY FOR THE SIXTH TIME

Jack Ryerson (right), runner-up and George T. Dunlap Jr., winner of the 40th annual North and South amateur golf championship completed yesterday over the championship course of the Pinehurst Country Club.

Pinehurst-Ft. Bragg Polo Game at 3 P.M. Today

Today's polo on the Pinehurst field will take on a military aspect, with Fort Bragg sending over a strong foursome to compete against the invincible Pinehurst team in this afternoon's engagement.

The U. S. Army boys are itching to come through with a win over the Pinehurst lads, who ran up their ninth consecutive victory last Sunday, when they defeated the Ramblers to the tune of 6-5 after a 5-5 freeze at the end of the regulation six periods. The teams decided to play off the deadlock and Pinehurst put one through the Ramblers' goal after two minutes of the play-off chukker.

Pinehurst's record book of wins also shows one against Bragg, in their fray of several weeks back.

Today's line-up:

PINEHURST	FORT BRAGG
1. Mercer Hicks.	1. Lieut. Alex Graham.
2. R. B. Green.	2. Lieut. R. Kohler.
3. Merrill Fink.	3. Capt. Dave Erskine.
4. B. R. Brown.	4. Capt. Paul R. Miller.

Referees: Col. George P. Hawes Jr. and Earl Shaw. Time-keeper, William E. Baker. Announcer, Elliott Barta.

Reserved choice parking spaces on the field edge may be obtained by calling the Pinehurst Polo Club, Tel. 3694 or 3862, Pinehurst. All unreserved tickets at the gate.

ORCHARDS BLOSSOM AT BEST THIS WEEK

Hawley Pool, orchardist of West End, says the apple trees will be in blossom at their best starting today, about the middle of the week to be in full blossom.

Visitors to Pinehurst who appreciate beautiful landscapes will be afforded a delightful panorama of trees in bloom if they drive along the orchard lined highways, just a short distance from the village.

POLICE AND PATROLMAN BOWL AT CENTER

In a hotly contested match at the Amusement Center yesterday afternoon Police Chief A. F. Dees and State Highway Patrolman Wendell Kelly bowled it out to a finish, and it wasn't long before Meredith Herndon chimed in to show the law officers some of the fine points of the game. The finish resulted in victory for Patrolman Kelly, and Chief Dees had to shell out.

Charles Rider to Defend North-South Net Crown

U. N. C. Entry of 40 Players Tops List of Contestants in Tennis Classic Starting Tomorrow

HARLOW TO SPEAK

Robert E. Harlow of The Pinehurst Press Bureau and editor of The Outlook, will make the principal address at the annual stag dinner of the Rochester Club, Rochester, New York, on Wednesday night of this week.

He will discuss golfers and sports writers.

DEMARET LEADING MANGRUM BY 1 STROKE IN AUGUSTA TOURNEY

Texan Tallies 70 For 54 Hole Total of 209; Mangrum 210; Wood and Snead Next With 212 Each, Picard 213.

AUGUSTA, April 6.—It is still Jimmy Demaret and Lloyd Mangrum in the Augusta tournament. Going into the final round, Demaret leads Mangrum by one stroke. They were tied at the end of 36 holes, but today Jimmy scored a 70, two under par, to post a 54 hole total of 209 compared to Mangrum's 210.

Coming fast down the stretch are Craig Wood and Sam Snead. Snead, starting four strokes behind after two rounds, moved up a notch. Wood, six strokes back at the halfway mark, cut that deficit in two, for a tie with Snead in third place.

Marvin Ward, National champion, led the amateurs with a score of 217. This placed him in a tie for tenth, with Cooper, Runyan and Walsh.

The final round will be played Sunday. Bobby Jones was a spectator, having withdrawn yesterday because of an injured back.

PROFESSIONALS

Demaret	70-209
Mangrum	71-210
Wood	67-212
Snead	69-212
Picard	71-213

(Continued on page five)

WALSH DUE MONDAY TO ARRANGE GOLF MOVIE

Joe Walsh, sporting editor for RKO will arrive in Pinehurst Monday, in advance of a staff of camera and sound experts who will make a golfing sportscope here, with Horton Smith as leading man and Pinehurst people playing parts.

This will be the second golf picture made in Pinehurst. The first one was shown in more than 4,000 theaters. The "shooting" will start about April 15th. The Pinehurst Press Bureau will work with the RKO staff in the production of this picture.

Duke University Will be Represented in Pinehurst Amateur Series by Team of Ten; N. C. State to Send Group.

BUXBY, HALL, ENTERED

Topped by a group of 40 budding net stars from the University of North Carolina, the twenty-second annual North and South amateur tennis tournament will get underway at the Pinehurst Country Club tomorrow morning. Play will be in divisions of men's singles, men's doubles and women's singles.

The U. N. C. team, under the direction of Coach Kenfield, will try to take back to Chapel Hill the 1940 trophy, to repeat the singles win of 1939, which Charles Rider, a junior student of the Tar Heels, retired last year. Rider is entered in this year's event.

Duke University will be represented with ten players and N. C. State will also send several down to compete.

Other entries include Martin Buxby, representing Florida's stronger players, Gilbert Hall, seasoned veteran, Josiah Bacon, C. A. Farrar; and among the feminine representation, Mrs. Sarah Palfrey of Brookline, Mass., women's national doubles champion, who showed effective work in her tour of the Florida circuit this winter, Miss Barbara Neilds, Cleveland's top feminine star, Miss Mary M. Joyce of Brookline, and many others.

An entry of note is that of Henry Glenn, assistant district attorney of New York.

Close to 70 players are expected to participate in the various divisions, opening with the men's singles tomorrow. The women's singles are expected to get underway Tuesday and the men's doubles Wednesday.

Entries for the men's singles close tonight at the Country Club. Fred C. "Pop" Baggs is directing the competition.

Census of Hotels To be Taken Monday

Mrs. Paul Dixon, assistant United States census supervisor of the 8th district, will be in Pinehurst Monday, April 8, to direct the census of the local hotels which will be made on that date. April 8th is the appointed date for the nationwide hotel census.

R. F. Holland, assistant area manager, will also be here to aid Mrs. Dixon. Mr. Holland reports that special attention will be given to this census, as Pinehurst hotels are at approximately the height of their season.

FINLAND TO RESUME RELATIONS WITH SOVIET

LONDON, April 6.—(P)—Exchange Telegraph, British news agency, reported today that Finland and Soviet Russia had agreed to resume diplomatic relations this month.

WHAT TO DO AND SEE

Today

Polo game this afternoon on No. 2 field, beginning at 3:00 o'clock. Fort Bragg vs. Pinehurst. Public invited.

Putting tournament at Pine Needles this afternoon.

Buffet supper at Holly Inn tonight.

Annual North and South amateur tennis tournament begins at Pinehurst Country Club tomorrow.

AT THE THEATRES

- Pinehurst -

Tonight and Monday night at 8:30, matinee Monday at 3:00, "Rebecca," with Lawrence Oliver, Joan Fontaine and Judith Anderson.

Added attraction for tonight, "The Cotton Blossom Singers."

- Southern Pines -

Tomorrow and Tuesday night at 8:15, matinee Tuesday at 3:00, "Star Dust," with Linda Darnell, Roland Young and Charlotte Greenwood.

Aberdeen

Tomorrow and Tuesday night at 7:30 and 9:20, A. J. Cronin's "Vigil in the Night," with Carole Lombard, Brian Aherne, Anne Shirley and Brenda Forbes. Story by the author of The Citadel.

WEATHER

Sunday, partly cloudy, slightly warmer. Monday, occasional rains. Slightly cooler.