

OPEN FOR BUSINESS — Bill Brown (left) manager of the Ahoskie ABC store and Rufus Darden, who will be the manager of the Murfreesboro store, were busy putting Hertford County ABC stickers on the stock when the Ahoskie store opened Wednesday.

Ahoskie's ABC Store Is Opened For Business Wed.

AHOSKIE — Ahoskie got its first ABC store Wednesday when doors opened at 9 a.m. at 414 E. Main with $40,000 worth of stock and Bill Brown as manager and Harold Vinson as clerk, and a combination clerk and warehouse man to be added.

Also on hand were Rufus Darden of Como, who will manage the Murfreesboro store, scheduled to open Monday or Tuesday, and Calvin Pearce of Murfreesboro, clerk, and Bruce Bradley of Winton who will operate the Winton store, site of which is yet to be decided.

Salaries of the ABC employees have been set at $95 a week for managers and $90 a week for clerks with staggered hours planned to limit working time to 40 or 41 hours a week, according to P. B. Woodley, Hertford County ABC Board chairman.

Initially, hours of the Ahoskie store will be from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Woodley said.

However, hours will be governed by the flow of business, he said, with this to be decided a little later.

George Man Pendleton Is Injured

SCOTLAND NECK — A 28-year-old resident of George was reported to be in satisfactory condition in the Roanoke-Chowan Hospital, recovering from injuries sustained in a two-car collision near here Sunday.

N. C. Highway Patrolman S. E. Jones reported this morning Arthur Jay Edwards was injured in the wreck around 6:30 p.m. on U.S. 258, one mile north of here.

The patrolman reported three other persons, Earl Poole, Gerald Weich and Pamela Wicker, all of Sanford, were treated for minor injuries at the Our Community Clinic here and released.

According to the patrolman, the accident occurred when a 1959 Ford, operated by James Welch, 20, of Sanford, ran off the right side of the road, back to the left, into the left bound lane and struck head on a Volkswagen operated by Edwards.

Edwards was admitted to the Roanoke-Chowan Hospital, Ahoskie, with severe arm and facial lacerations, said Jones.

Approximately $400 damage was reported to the Volkswagen and $500 damage to the Ford. Jones is continuing his investigation.
