Spivey-Elias Vows Spoken In Weldon Methodist Rites

WELDON - The marriage of Miss Charlotte Zettie Elias and William Griffin Spivey was solemnized Sunday, July 18, at 3 o'clock in the Weldon Methodist Church. The Rev. Thomas Smith, pastor of Tabor-Hawkins Chapel Methodist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Angus Cameron, pastor of Jackson Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Joseph Elias of Weldon and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Spivey of Jackson.

The nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Burely G. Hamill, organist, and the Rev. Calvin S. Knight, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Matron of honor was Mrs. David Pittard, aunt of the bride, of Roanoke Rapids and the maid of honor was Miss Salye Spivey, sister of the bridegroom, of Jackson. Bridesmaids were Miss Diane Smith, cousin of the bride, Roanoke Rapids; Miss June Spivey, cousin of the bridegroom, Jackson; Mrs. William Tillee, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Otho Nathaniel Vaughan, Weldon.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Henry Caswell Harris, John Henry Harris, III, Reuben Marshall Harris, all of Weldon; B. F. Goodall and Bobby Bradley, of Roanoke Rapids; Dan Cross and David B. Woodson, Jr., Richmond; Holland Brown, Franklin, Va.; and Allan Ray Stokes, Ayden.

Miss Cindy Stokes of Roanoke Rapids was flower girl. Booten Goodall of Roanoke Rapids was ring bearer.

Mrs. Hilda Richardson of Roanoke Rapids directed the wedding and Mrs. Mason Beale, cousin of the bridegroom, Woodland, presided at the bride's book.

Next month the couple will make their home in Miami, Fla., where Mr. Spivey will be a professor of English at the Miami Carol City Senior High School and Mrs. Spivey will teach in an elementary school near there.

The bride is a graduate of Weldon High School and received a two-year secretarial certificate from Chowan College and is a graduate of East Carolina College where she received a B.S. degree in primary education. She has taught at William R. Davie School for the past two years.

The bridegroom attended Louisville and Chowan Colleges, graduating with an associate in arts degree. He also is a graduate of East Carolina College where he received a B.S. degree. He is a member of the Methodist Men's Club and a Lay leader at the Jackson Methodist Church, where he was a former Sunday School teacher. He has taught at William R. Davie School for the past three years.

emony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. Hilda Richardson greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line.

The refreshment table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of white roses and mums, flanked by silver candelabras holding white tapers. After the bride couple had cut the traditional first slice of the wedding cake, the cake was served by Mrs. Rudolph Creel, Mrs. J. E. Filley poured punch. Nuts and bridal mints in silver composites were served buffet. Assisting in serving were Mrs. J. H. Harris, Jr., Mrs. Lawrence Smith, aunt of the bride, and Misses Linda and Alice Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rowland presided at the guest register and goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alston, uncle and aunt of the bride.

Approximately 350 were in attendance.

Courtesies

Rehearsal party—Following the rehearsal Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Spivey, Miss Salye Spivey and Mrs. D. L. Boone of Jackson entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a bridal party in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The table was covered with a white cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of gladioli in a silver bowl and flanked by silver candelabras with lighted tapers. Mrs. D. L. Boone served the cake, assisted by Mrs. W. L. Braswell and Mrs. L. B. Spivey.

Mrs. James Wood Boone poured punch. Chicken salad in patti shells, nuts and mints were also served.

Luncheon - On Saturday morning at 11 a.m., William Griffin Spivey entertained at a luncheon for his attendants at his home in Jackson. Those attending were Holland Brown of Franklin Va., John Henry Harris, III, and Reuben Marshall Harris of Weldon; Bobby Bradley of Roanoke Rapids; Allan Ray Stokes of Ayden; and Dan Cross and David B. Woodson, Jr., of Richmond and James Henry Spivey of Jackson.

Shower - Mrs. Rozzette Pittard, Mrs. Jack Alston, Mrs. Gerald Rowland, Mrs. J. H. Harris, Jr., and Mrs. Rudolph Creel entertained the bride at a miscellaneous shower on July 1 in the Patterson Recreation Center in Roanoke Rapids. A green and white color scheme was carried out in decoration and refreshments. The honoree was presented a white carnation corsage and an array of gifts. Approximately 40 guests were in attendance.

Supper - Mr. and Mrs. Hillard Hux and son, Randy Hux, entertained the bride couple at a dinner at their home near Darlington.

Mrs. John Liles, III, Mrs. A. J. Elias, Mrs. R. E. Britt and Mrs. William Tillee honored the bride with a shower last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Elias in the Country Club Section of Weldon. Pink roses were used throughout the home and the bride's table was centered with a bride doll. The honoree was presented a corsage and many gifts from the guests. Mrs. Frankie Mountford poured punch. Mints and nuts were served to 25 guests attending.

Dinner party - Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Goodall entertained at a dinner party at the Fairfax Restaurant on Friday evening honoring the bride couple. The bride was presented a pink carnation corsage by the hostess. An arrangement of mixed flowers centered the white covered table and a birthday cake graced one end of Mammoth "Temperance" Mass Meeting!

COURT ROOM
Northampton Court House
JACKSON, N. C.

Thursday, August 12th
A.D. 1965
7:30 - 9:00 P.M.

Probably the greatest DRY MASS MEETING ever held in Eastern N. C.

Of special importance in connection with the current NORTHAMPTON WHISKEY-BEER-WINE campaign!

The following religious, educational and political leaders have been especially invited, to participate in this great program. Some have already accepted:

Governor Dan K. Moore, Hon. L. H. Fountain, Bishop Paul Neff Garber, Dr. Perry Crouch, Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker—

Mrs. J. B. Davis (President N.C. W.C.T.U.), Mrs. E. L. Roebuck (W.C.T.U.), Mrs. Luther Johnson, Mrs. Moselle Madrey—

Dr. J. W. Page, Dr. H. G. Ruark, Hon. William J. Norwood, Hon. Perry Martin, Judge W. H. S. Burgwyn, also Cousin Bartlett M. Burgwyn—

Members of the State Legislature: Hon. J. Raynor Woodard, Hon. R. H. Jernigan, Hon. E. W. Burdin, Hon. J. J. Harrington, Hon. Thorne Gregory.

Special and formal invitations have been mailed to pastors in five counties, to Northampton County officials, and many others.

While serious, this meeting will be dramatic, entertaining and perhaps, slightly humorous! Liquor will be on trial. There will be a judge and a jury to rule on the case against PUBLIC ENEMY NO. 1, and the threatened WHISKY-BEER-WINE assault on our Northampton homes and churches!

A new song, "AMERICAN BATTLE HYMN," will be sung by a church choir, for the first time sung in public. A devastating new weapon, TEM-PRO-LA-NENCE will be dropped on the PUBLIC ENEMY for the first time! There will be exhibits, free literature, and "temperance" drinks for all. It will be a great meeting, educational, entertaining, and "a good show!"

We invite all friends. But just as important, if not more so, we invite all who are undecided as to how to vote on the 14th, and even friendly opponents who honestly seek the truth! Mr. Burgwyn, of the "Citizens ABC Committee," welcome. "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (—Jesus) from WHISKEY-BEER-WINE!

COME ONE! COME ALL! FILL UP THE COURT ROOM!
