

Burning Permits Required To Burn Matter In County

JACKSON — Effective October 1 all persons who wish to burn any matter within 500 feet of a woods must have a burning permit, according to Leroy Wheeler, county forest ranger.

As prescribed by N. C. State laws anyone burning trash, debris, fields or other matter before 4 o'clock p.m. must obtain a permit.

National 4-H Week Being Observed By County Clubs

JACKSON — National 4-H Club Week is being celebrated throughout our nation during the week of September 25-October 2. If you'd like the joy of belonging, join a 4-H club today.

What is 4-H? An informal out-of-school education for young people. It is the youth program of your County Extension Service, carried on in cooperation with your state land-grant university and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The 4-H movement began more than 50 years ago and pioneered in teaching young people to "learn by doing." More than 2,225,000 boys and girls belong to 4-H in this country. Some 75 foreign countries also have programs similar to 4-H.

Who Can Belong to 4-H? Any boy or girl 10 to 19 years of age. Whether you live in the country, a town or suburb, or a city, you may join 4-H.

What does 4-H Offer? Four-H is for boys and girls who want to go places and do adventurous things. The program helps young people grow into dependable, useful citizens. In 4-H you'll:

- * Belong to a club that holds regular meeting.
- * Help elect your own officers and plan your own club programs.
- * Enroll in one of many interesting 4-H projects.
- * Make new acquaintances and have new adventures.
- * Join with your friends in exciting club activities geared to modern youth interests.
- * Learn to work and play with other boys and girls your own age at club meetings, tours, camps, picnics, and other county events.
- * You'll be glad you joined 4-H because you will:
 - * Become more capable and self-confident.
 - * Receive practical experience in everyday tasks.
 - * Master new skills.
 - * Acquire better health habits and grooming.
 - * Develop ambition, initiative and responsibility.
 - * Learn how to cooperate with others.
 - * Expand your leadership ability.
 - * Launch your own enterprise.
 - * Explore the secrets of nature and science.

What does 4-H cost? Nothing! Four-H club work is FREE to young people. It's paid for cooperatively by federal, state and county government. Some clubs decide to charge nominal local dues to cover cost of refreshments, etc., but others have no dues at all. All organizational material, training literature, work books, and bulletins are free. Interested businessmen and civic organizations often provide additional help in the form of scholarships and other educational incentives and aids.

Who helps with 4-H? Adults who like to work with young people serve as volunteer 4-H leaders. They are supervised by the county extension staff. Older 4-H'ers also serve as junior leaders to help younger members with their projects. Your 4-H leader will assist when necessary but will encourage you to do things for yourself.

Either Sex Deer Seasons Set For Roanoke-Chowan

RALEIGH — Area hunters can hunt either sex deer again this year in Northampton, Bertie, Gates and Hertford counties, and in 10 other N. C. counties and 13 Wildlife Resources Commission's management areas.

Frank Barick, chief of the Commission's Division of Game, has said, "Since most of the 'open' hunts are on private lands, sportsmen will have to get permission from landowners before hunting deer."

Roanoke - Chowan areas in which either sex deer hunts will be legal are:

Northampton County — December 10 and 11 in that part bounded on the north by U.S. 158 and on the east by the main run of Gumberry Swamp.

Bertie County — December 6-18 in that part bounded on the north by N.C. 308 and on the east by secondary road 1112 and 1109.

Gates County — December 1-January 1 in that part west of N.C. 32.

Hertford County — October 15-January 1 in that part north of Meherrin River.

Antlerless deer taken on these hunts must be officially tagged. Checking stations will be located on or near areas open for the hunts. Transportation or possession of untaged antlerless deer is an invitation to prosecution for violation of state hunting regulations.

Archery hunting for buck deer is permitted during the special bow season that runs from September 22 through October 14 in those sections of the state where the regular season opens October 15, and from October 15 through November 6 where the regular season opens on November 22. On Roanoke - Chowan areas that will be open to either sex deer hunting, archery hunters will be allowed to take deer of either sex during the last six days of the special archery season.
